History of New Testament Research, Vol. 2 William Baird, 2002-11-01 Stressing the historical and theological significance of pivotal figures and movements William Baird guides the reader through intriguing developments and critical interpretation of the New Testament from its beginnings in Deism through the watershed of the Tübingen school Familiar figures appear in a new light and important previously forgotten stages of the journey emerge Baird gives attention to the biographical and cultural setting of persons and approaches affording both beginning student and seasoned scholar an authoritative account that is useful for orientation as well as research Reading Philemon Panayotis Coutsoumpos, Panagiotis L.

Kampouris, 2022-01-27 Paul's letter to Philemon is one of the writings that seem likely as a common Hellenistic letter of the time In the letter to Philemon we find basic concepts of the author's theology on the issues of the slavery and human relationships What made Philemon a special letter is an appealing refined and sophisticated rhetorical style Another feature of Philemon is its originality and more remarkable is Paul's appeal to Philemon on behalf of Onesimus Paul writes as a prisoner of Christ but shows few details regarding the situation of his imprisonment Paul distinguishes Philemon's love and faith because he sees them as indissoluble Thus Philemon is a revealing text because it is the one New Testament letter that deals with a case of slavery Exegeting the Jews: The Early Reception of the Johannine "Jews" Michael

Azar, 2016-04-18 In Exegeting the Jews The Early Reception of the Johannine Jews Michael G Azar analyzes the rhetorical function of the Gospel of John's Jews in the earliest surviving full length expositions of John in Greek Origen's Commentary on John 3rd cent John Chrysostom's Homilies on John 4th cent and Cyril of Alexandria's Commentary on John 5th cent While scholarship often has portrayed the reception history Wirkungsgeschichte of the Gospel's Jews as simply and uniformly anti-Jewish or antisemitic Azar demonstrates that these three writers primarily read John's narrative typologically employing the situation and characters in the Gospel not against contemporary Jews with whom they regularly interacted but as types of each patristic writer's own intra-Christian struggle and opponents The Text of the New Testament in Contemporary Godly Fear or Ungodly Failure? Michael Kibbe,2016-05-10 A cursory glance at Hebrews critique of Israel's fear at Sinai in Heb 12:18-29 suggests that the author has misunderstood or manipulated his sources In the Pentateuch the appointment of Moses as Israel's mediator receives explicit approval Exod 19:9 Deut 5:28 while Heb 12:25 labels their request for mediation a refusal to heed the word of God This book argues that Hebrews use of the Sinai narratives resides on a complex trajectory established by four points the Sinai covenant according to Exodus the reenactment of that covenant according to Deuteronomy the call for a NEW covenant according to Jeremiah and the present reality of that covenant established by God and mediated by Jesus Christ The basis for Hebrews critique arises from its insight that while Israel's request established covenant from a distance Jesus demonstrates that true covenant mediation brings two parties into a single space The purpose for Hebrews critique lies in its summons to Zion the mountain on which Jesus sits at the right hand of God as the high priestly mediator of the new covenant Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,Library of Congress. King,2020-11-09 The Gospel of John and Epicureanism share vocabulary and reject the conventions of Graeco Roman theology Would it then have been easy for an Epicurean to become a Christian or vice versa Fergus J King suggests that such claims become unlikely when detailed analyses of the two traditions are set out and compared The first step in his examination looks at evidence for potential engagement between the two traditions historically and geographically Both traditions address concerns about the good life death and the divine However this correspondence soon unravels as their worldviews are far from identical Shared terms like Saviour their respective rituals and teaching about community life reveal substantial differences in ethos and behaviour
