Books and Other Hooks: 21st Century Education Manfred J. von Vulte, 2013-12 21st Century education is at the cross roads It can continue to be defined by a narrow scope benefiting the median student who can muster moments of brilliance assisted by the technology he or she so easily wields or it can salvage what was deemed noble by tradition and merge them with the modernistic tools and educational innovations of the new century Education has reached a point where its students and parents have either seen the limitations of the system and accepted them or have forged some external responses to them These retorts can be seen in the following manifestations the rise of after school athletics where sports are now played that have been deemed too aggressive for school the explosion of tutoring centres who are capitalizing on the fact that process has been a small part of the curriculum and rudimentary skills are overshadowed by what can be best described as educational pulp and finally the growth of the independent private schools and home schooling where total abdication from public systems has come to rest Comic books robotics industrial arts instrumental music cooking camping fine art and other genuine experiential initiatives need to be examined by today's schools The empty promises of video games and their ethereal claim to genuine experience has produced a significant student body that is resigned to mediocrity and virtual encounters that provide neither the authentic feeling of victory nor the reviled sting of true defeat Students are looking for the genuine in their teachers lessons and activities 21st Century education by comic book or by hook will rest in the power of professional dynamism and the authentic teaching of practice process and prolonged proficiency Boxed out of the NBA Syl Sobel, Jay Rosenstein, 2021-04-14 The Eastern Professional Basketball League 1946-78 was fast and physical often played in tiny smoke filled gyms across the northeast and featuring the best players who just couldn't make the NBA many because of unofficial quotas on Black players some because of scandals and others because they weren't quite good enough in the years when the NBA had less than 100 players In Boxed out of the NBA Remembering the Eastern Professional Basketball League Syl Sobel and Jay Rosenstein tell the fascinating story of a league that was a pro basketball institution for over 30 years showcasing top players from around the country During the early years of professional basketball the Eastern League was the next best professional league in the world after the NBA It was home to big name players such as Sherman White Jack Molinas and Bill Spivey who were implicated in college gambling scandals in the 1950s and were barred from the NBA

and top Black players such as Hal King Lear Julius McCoy and Wally Choice who could not make the NBA into the early 1960s due to unwritten team quotas on African American players Featuring interviews with some 40 former Eastern League coaches referees fans and players including Syracuse University coach Jim Boeheim former Temple University coach John Chaney former Detroit Pistons player and coach Ray Scott former NBA coach and ESPN analyst Hubie Brown and former NBA player and coach Bob Weiss this book provides an intimate first hand account of small town professional basketball at its best Journals: Volume II Joseph Alberts, Journals: Volume I Joseph Alberts, Pennsylvania Business Directory,2009
