Slavery and the Making of Early American Libraries Sean D. Moore, 2019-02-07 Early American libraries stood at the nexus of two transatlantic branches of commerce the book trade and the slave trade Slavery and the Making of Early American Libraries bridges the study of these trades by demonstrating how Americans profits from slavery were reinvested in imported British books and providing evidence that the colonial book market was shaped in part by the demand of slave owners for metropolitan cultural capital Drawing on recent scholarship that shows how participation in London cultural life was very expensive in the eighteenth century as well as evidence that enslavers were therefore some of the few early Americans who could afford to import British cultural products the volume merges the fields of the history of the book Atlantic studies and the study of race arguing that the empire wide circulation of British books was underwritten by the labour of the African diaspora The volume is the first in early American and eighteenth century British studies to fuse our growing understanding of the material culture of the transatlantic text with our awareness of slavery as an economic and philanthropic basis for the production and consumption of knowledge In studying the American dissemination of works of British literature and political thought it claims that Americans were seeking out the forms of citizenship constitutional traditions and rights that were the signature of that British identity Even though they were purchasing the sovereignty of Anglo Americans at the expense of African Americans through these books however some colonials were also making the case for the abolition of slavery

Kevin Macdonald's Metaphysical Failure: a Philosophical, Historical, and Moral Critique of Evolutionary Psychology, Sociobiology, and Identity Politics Jonas E. Alexis, 2022-04-25 In Kevin MacDonald's Metaphysical Failure Jonas E Alexis offers a thoroughly researched nuanced and lucid analysis of Kevin MacDonald's thought in particular MacDonald's belief in biological and philosophical Darwinism It is an important book that fills a critical gap in the literature on the history of revolutionary movements and Darwinism both in the West and in Asia It is also a study that adds many significant strands to the densely interwoven history of ideas such as Malthusianism and Eugenics Alexis's book engages debates in the history of ideas going back to Madison Grant and beyond and the history of Darwinism It challenges many of the life long prevailing assumptions about identity politics and produces a powerful critique of how scientific theories have been misused to uphold misguided and faulty categorizations Powerfully reasoned and backed with a startling array of documented studies Kevin MacDonald's Metaphysical Failure presents an in depth look at key beliefs behind many mistaken and consequently destructive actions taken by numerous writers and thinkers particularly Darwin's ardent enthusiasts and devoted disciples The book presents eye opening insights into the historical development of Darwin's ideological project and how that project ended up crippling Darwin's intellectual children from Richard Dawkins Francis Crick James Watson Daniel Dennett Ernst Mayr and E O Wilson to Kevin MacDonald Richard Spencer David Duke and Jared Taylor

Theodicy and Spirituality in the Fourth Gospel Daniel DeForest London, 2020-06-15 Daniel DeForest London argues that the Fourth Gospel offers a potentially transformative response to the question of suffering and the human compulsion to blame Based on his reading of John 9 the man born blind London argues that the Gospel does not offer a theodicy but rather a theodical spirituality an experience of praying the question of suffering and remaining open to a divine response London shows how the Johannine Jesus's response poses three sets of symbols in dichotomy day night vision blindness sheep wolf each subverted by another core symbol light judge shepherd By interpreting these symbols in light of mimetic theory he argues that Jesus's response reveals the scapegoat mechanism in which an innocent victim is blamed by violent victimizers However rather than blaming the victimizers Jesus continues to engage with the characters who appear to be villains the light of the world transforms night and day into one continuous day the Good Shepherd welcomes sheep and wolf into his beloved flock In this way readers are invited to bring to the Johannine Jesus their own violence resentment and wolfish rage regarding the question of suffering and to experience the theodical spirituality of the Fourth Gospel

The Highest Reality | A Treatise On Religion, Truth, Morality and The Purpose of Life Paritosh M. Chakrabarti,2024-04-23 How does one s upbringing determine one s ethical and religious views Are humans unique in this universe Is God dead as Nietzsche declared Is there any truth beyond scientific facts How different religions relate to one another What are the truth and falsehoods in various religions Are communism and nihilism more in sync with reality than religion How should we prioritise between self interest and sacrifice What should be our individual role to seek global peace Is there a higher purpose in life than just living The author a scientist scholar innovator entrepreneur and philanthropist discusses these questions in a well argued treatise sprinkled with memorable episodes and anecdotes

Animals as Religious Subjects Celia Deane-Drummond,Rebecca Artinian-Kaiser,David L. Clough,2013-08-01 This book examines one of the most pressing cultural concerns that surfaced in the last decade the question of the place and significance of the animal This collection of essays represents the outcome of various conversations regarding animal studies and shows multidisciplinary at its very best namely a rigorous approach within one discipline in conversation with others around a common theme The contributors discuss the most relevant disciplines regarding this conversation namely philosophy anthropology religious studies theology history of religions archaeology and cultural studies The first section Thinking about Animals explores philosophical anthropological and religious perspectives raising general questions about the human perception of animals and its crucial cultural significance The second section explores the intriguing topic of the way animals have been used historically as religious symbols and in religious rituals The third section re examines some Christian theological and biblical approaches to animals in the light of current concerns The final section extends the implications of traditional views about other animals to more specific ethical theories and practices

The Great Awakening Thomas S. Kidd,2008-10-01 In the mid eighteenth century Americans experienced an outbreak of religious revivals that shook colonial society This book provides a definitive view of these revivals now known as the First Great Awakening and their dramatic effects on American culture Historian Thomas S Kidd tells the absorbing story of early American evangelical Christianity through the lives of seminal figures like Jonathan Edwards and George Whitefield as well as many previously unknown preachers prophets and penitents The Great Awakening helped create the evangelical movement which heavily emphasized the individual s experience of salvation and the Holy Spirit's work in revivals By giving many evangelicals radical notions of the spiritual equality of all people the revivals helped breed the democratic style that would come to characterize the American republic Kidd carefully separates the positions of moderate supporters of the revivals from those of radical supporters and he delineates the objections of those who completely deplored the revivals and their wildly egalitarian consequences The battles among these three camps the author shows transformed colonial America and ultimately defined the nature of the evangelical movement World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Christianity in China Archie R. Crouch,1989 A bibliographical guide to the works in American libraries concerning the Christian missionary experience in China An Uncommon Christian Francis I. Kyle III,2007-12-24 An Uncommon Christian seeks to show how and why James Brainerd Taylor 1801 1829 became a popular participant during America's Second Great Awakening and why the Princeton graduate and Yale Seminary student grew to be a frequent example of evangelical Protestant spirituality and evangelistic passion long after his untimely death Those interested in religious revivals evangelism and missions spirituality early nineteenth century American history the integration of faith and action with university or seminary studies or inspirational Christian biography will benefit from this exhaustive and long overdue book on a forgotten hero of the Protestant faith Ambiguous Locks Roberta Milliken,2014-01-10 It has long been said that a woman's hair is her crowning glory Indeed throughout history hair has remained an important cultural symbol of femininity In medieval art iconic images of long flowing locks can express sexuality and the cutting of a woman's hair often signals her feminine misbehavior Artists of all kinds in the Middle Ages used women's long hair to manipulate their audience's estimation of their female figures This interdisciplinary work explores the significance of women's hair in literature and art from the medieval period through 1525 putting into historical context the ways in which hair participates in construction of the female identity Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1979 Kulturgeschichte des späten Mittelalters Johann Maier,Karl Prenner,Anton Grabner-Haider,2012-09-12 This book informs about culture and the ways of thinking in Europe in the late Middle Ages The concept of culture follows the intention of Pragmatic Philosophy from W James to R Rorty Special areas of study are social dynamics forms of government religious teachings moral intentions philosophical doctrines exchange with Jews and the Islamic culture consecution of the heretics development of natural science literature poetry architecture and painting Altogether the book intends to show the various forms of life and the worlds of ideas of the era it builds a strong bridge for a better understanding of our cultural memory in modern times
