Archives and Emotions Ilaria Scaglia, Valeria Vanesio, 2024-11-14 Archives and Emotions argues at its most fundamental level that emotions matter and have always mattered to both the people whose histories are documented by archives and to those working with the documents these contain This is the first study to put archivists and historians scholars and practitioners from different settings geographical provenance and stages of career in conversation with one another to examine the interplay of a broad range of emotions and archives traditional and digital from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries across national and disciplinary borders Drawing on methodologies from the history of emotions and critical archival studies this book provides an original analysis of two interconnected themes through a selected number of case studies the emotional dynamics affecting the construction and management of archives and the emotions and their effects on the people engaging with them such as archivists researchers and a broad range of communities Its main message is that critically investigating the history and mechanics of emotions including their suppression and exclusion also being conscious of their effects on people and societies is essential to understanding how archives came to hold deep civic and ethical implications for both present and future This study thus establishes a solid base for future scholarship and interdisciplinary collaborations and challenges academic and non academic readers to think work and train new generations differently fully aware that past and present choices have and might again hurt inspire empower or silence

Handbook of Empirical Literary Studies Donald Kuiken, Arthur M. Jacobs, 2021-09-20 This handbook reviews efforts to increase the use of empirical methods in studies of the aesthetic and social effects of literary reading The reviewed research is expansive including extension of familiar theoretical models to novel domains e.g. educational settings enlarging empirical efforts within under represented research areas e.g. child development and broadening the range of applicable quantitative and qualitative methods e.g. computational stylistics phenomenological methods Especially challenging is articulation of the subtle aesthetic and social effects of literary artefacts e.g. poetry film Increasingly the complexity of these effects is addressed in multi variate studies including confirmatory factor analysis and structural equation modeling While each chapter touches upon the historical background of a specific research topic two chapters address the area's historical background and guiding philosophical assumptions Taken together the material in this volume provides a systematic introduction to the area for early career professionals while challenging active researchers to develop theoretical frameworks and empirical procedures that match the complexity of their research objectives

If...Then Taina Bucher, 2018-06-05 We live in a world in which Google s search algorithms determine how we access information Facebook s News Feed algorithms shape how we socialize and Netflix collaborative filtering algorithms choose the media products we consume Rather than looking at how technologies shape or are shaped by political institutions this book is concerned with the ways in which informational infrastructure may be considered political in its capacity to shape social and cultural life Setting out to explore both the specific uses of algorithms and the cultural forms they generate this book offers a novel understanding of the power and politics of algorithmic life as grounded in case studies that explore the material discursive dimensions of software

Teachers of Multiple Languages Eric K. Ku, 2023-09-04 This book argues that teachers of multiple languages TMLs form a distinct group of language teachers and that the study of this largely overlooked demographic group can reveal new insights into how we perceive and research language teachers The book highlights the narratives of three TMLs from diverse global contexts examining their journeys in navigating their careers as well as traversing multiple worlds and developing additional ways of being through new identities beliefs and emotions The author offers new globally relevant insights for language teaching research at individual pedagogical and institutional level and demonstrates that teaching multiple languages is an emerging transnational phenomenon that cuts across age languages countries institutions and career stages By furthering our understanding of why and how some multilingual language teachers have expanded and changed their careers through teaching additional languages the book offers a new perspective on how language teaching careers are changing in an increasingly globalized multilingual world

Appraisal, Sentiment and Emotion Analysis in Political Discourse Claudia Roberta Combei, Valeria Reggi, 2023-11-16 This book adopts a multi method multimodal approach to the study of online political communication applying it to case studies from the United Kingdom France and Italy towards offering a portrait of the rapid ideological shifts in contemporary Western democracies The volume introduces an integrated framework combining Sentiment and Emotion Analysis rooted in lexical semantics and the qualitative dimensions of Appraisal Theory applying it to large corpora of online political communication from the United Kingdom France and Italy Combei and Reggi highlight their combined potential in analysing the multimodal resources in such discourses and in turn revealing fresh insights into layers of subtext and the ways in which parties and movements frame their political programmes and values The authors also take into account culture and language specific variables across the three countries in shaping such discourses The volume makes the case for an integrated methodological framework that can be uniquely applied to better understand the multimodal communicative landscape of divisiveness in today s rapidly shifting political climate and other forms of online communication more broadly This book will be of interest to students and scholars in digital communication political communication multimodality and qualitative and quantitative discourse analysis especially those interested in corpus assisted approaches

The ^AMind As a Scientific Object Christina E. Erneling, David M. Johnson, 2005-01-13 What holds together the various fields which considered together are supposed to constitute the general intellectual discipline that people now call cognitive science Some theorists identify the common subject matter as the mind but scientists have not been able to agree on any single satisfactory answer to the question of what the mind is This book argues that all cognitive sciences are not equal and that rather only neurophysiology and cultural psychology are suited to account for the mind s ontology

Salman Rushdie and the Genesis of Secrecy Vijay Mishra, 2019-05-16 Salman Rushdie and the Genesis of Secrecy is the first book to draw extensively from material in the Salman Rushdie archive at Emory University to uncover the makings of the British Indian writer s modernist poetics Simultaneously connecting Rushdie with radical non Western humanism and an essentially English European sensibility and therefore questions about world literature this book argues that a true understanding of the writer lies in uncovering his genesis of secrecy through a close reading of his archive Topics and materials explored include unpublished novels plays and screenplays the earlier versions and drafts of Midnight s Children and its adaptations understanding Islam and The Satanic Verses the influence of cinema and Rushdie s turn to earlier archives as the secret codes of modernism Through careful examination of Rushdie s archive Vijay Mishra demonstrates how Rushdie combines a radically new form of English with a familiarity with the generic registers of Indian Arabic and Persian literary forms Together these present a contradictory orientalism that defines Rushdie s own humanism within the parameters of world literature

Reckoning Deva R. Woodly, 2021-10-29 As Deva Woodly argues in Reckoning a sweeping account of the meaning and purpose of the Movement for Black Lives M4BL social movements are necessary for the health and survival of democracy Drawing from on the ground interviews with activists in the movement Woodly analyzes the emergence of the M4BL its organizational structure and culture and its strategies and tactics She also shows how a unique political philosophy Radical Black Feminist Pragmatism served as an intellectual foundation of the movement and documents the role it played in transforming public meanings public opinion and policy Interweaving theoretical and empirical observations throughout Woodly provides both a unique portrait of the movement and a powerful explanation of the labor social movements do in democracy Happy by Design Ben Channon,2023-11-15 Can good design truly make us happier Given that we spend over 80% of our time in buildings shouldn't we have a better understanding of how they make us feel Happy by Design explores the ways in which buildings spaces and cities affect our moods It reveals how architecture and design can make us happy and support mental health and explains how poor design can have the opposite effect Presented through a series of easy to understand design tips and accompanied by beautiful diagrams and illustrations Happy by Design is a fantastic resource for architects designers and students or for anybody who would like to better understand the relationship between buildings and happiness With the pandemic and cost of living crisis the importance of designing for mental wellbeing has never been higher on the agenda Whether through low energy design designing in better ventilation to avoid passing on pathogens or the realisation of the importance of accessing nature within an environment this revised edition has been updated to reflect a changed world

Cinema and Narrative Complexity Steffen Hven,2025-10-01 Since the mid 1990s a number of films from international filmmakers have experimented with increasingly complicated narrative strategies including such hits as Run Lola Run 21 Grams and Memento This book sets those films and others in context with earlier works that tried new narrative approaches including Stage Fright and Hiroshima Mon Amour to show how they reveal the limitations of most of our usual tools for analysing film In light of that Steffen Hven argues for the deployment of an embodied reconfiguration of the cinematic experience one that allows us to rethink such core constituents of narrative understanding as cognition emotion and affect This book considers films that have experimented with new increasingly complicated narrative approaches including Stage Fright and Hiroshima Mon Amour to show how they reveal the limitations of most of our usual tools for analysing film

Emotional Labour and Lesson Observation Ursula Edgington,2016-11-21 This book presents research on emotion work and the emotional labour of teaching and learning based in England's further education sector where an increasing emphasis on marketised systems means accountability and audit cultures have become embedded within everyday teaching practice Uniquely this book explores micro level issues of the managerial policies relating to classroom lesson observations as well as the profoundly emotional philosophical aspects of these situations which research asserts cause stress and anxiety for many staff Drawing on theoretical psychosocial concepts exploring the interplay of hidden or underground micro and macro elements of teaching and learning contexts the book illuminates how the presence of an observer fundamentally alters the dynamics of a classroom The author argues that it is not necessarily the performativity that creates the stress and anxiety in an observation but the individual's perception of this performativity and how it relates to a wider consideration of their emotional labour in the classroom For this reason the book puts forward a case for ending the formal graded method of lesson observations in favour of a developmental holistic approach that is sensitive to the emotional nuances of the individuals involved as well as the social and historical contexts of the institutions in which they are situated The diverse use of lesson observations as a tool for staff development and quality assurance policies make this a valuable resource for educational researchers policy makers teachers and managers from many different sectors and backgrounds

Human-Wildlife Interactions Beatrice Frank,Jenny A. Glikman,Silvio Marchini,2019-05-02 Presents solutions to turn conflict into tolerance and coexistence with an emphasis on the human dimensions of human wildlife interactions
