If you read technology news, you'll notice it's not just a story of amazing new product introductions or even that plus-copycat product introductions. All the usual aspects of business are there: fierce competition, new contenders, old survivors, great ideas, but business failures, mediocre ideas that somehow seem to succeed and prosper. As a reporter, commentator, and blogger on mobile technology, I've collected what happened in the industry in 2013 and make predictions on what will and won't happen in 2014. You can read what did happen in the mobile technology in 2013. Often I deliver a comment with the news item, and usually there is a link to the web page of the original announcement. iWar Tim Higgins, 2025-09-18 From the boardrooms to the court rooms this is the gripping story of how

Apple became the world's most valuable company and of the lawmakers and entrepreneurs determined to knock it off its pedestal. Since the invention of the iPhone and App Store, Apple has built a near unassailable market power controlling not only commerce but also culture and increasingly the flow of ideas. In response, a loose rebel alliance of tech entrepreneurs has formed to lay siege to Apple, bringing together Epic Games, Tim Sweeney, Spotify's Daniel Ek, X's Elon Musk, and WeChat's Pony Ma. In the trenches of popular opinion and now in the courtrooms of Europe and the United States, this rebellion aims to tear down Apple's walls and dismantle its alleged monopoly. iWar weaves together the story of Apple's rise and reign with the political and international forces arrayed against it in the fight over control of the global digital economy. The stakes couldn't be higher.
