Meeting Faith The Forest Journals Of A Black Buddhist Nun:

Meeting Faith Faith Adiele, 2005-07 Northern Thailand's first black Buddhist nun traces her journey from a Harvard scholarship student in the world of pop culture to her ordination into a world marked by natural violence and eastern philosophy discussing her resistance to the Buddhist worldview and her struggles to overcome difficult personal obstacles Reprint 10 000 first printing Meeting Faith Faith Elisabet Adiele, 2002 Meeting Faith: The Forest Journals of a Black Buddhist Nun Faith Adielé, 2004 Writing as Enlightenment John Whalen-Bridge, Gary Storhoff, 2011-08-01 This timely book explores how Buddhist inflected thought has enriched contemporary American literature Continuing the work begun in The Emergence of Buddhist American Literature editors John Whalen Bridge and Gary Storhoff and the volume's contributors turn to the most recent developments revealing how mid 1970s through early twenty first century literature has employed Buddhist texts principles and genres Just as Buddhism underwent indigenization when it moved from India to Tibet to China and to Japan it is now undergoing that process in the United States While some will find literary creativity in this process others lament a loss of authenticity The book begins with a look at the American reception of Zen and at the approaches to Dharma developed by African Americans The work of consciously Buddhist and Buddhist influenced writers such as Don DeLillo Gary Snyder and Jackson Mac Low is analyzed and a final section of the volume contains interviews and discussions with contemporary Buddhist writers These include an interview with Gary Snyder a discussion with Maxine Hong Kingston and Charles Johnson and discussions of competing American and Asian values at the Beat and Buddhist inspired writing program at Naropa University with poets Joanne Kyger Reed Byrd Keith Abbott Andrew Schelling and Elizabeth Robinson

New Media in Black Women's Autobiography T. Curtis, 2015-03-04 Examining novelists bloggers and other creators of new media this study focuses on autobiography by American black women since 1980 including Audre Lorde Jill Nelson and Janet Jackson As Curtis argues these women used embodiment as a strategy of drawing the audience into visceral identification with them and thus forestalling stereotypes Eminent Buddhist Women Karma Lekshe Tsomo, 2014-08-25 Explores the exemplary legacy of Buddhist women across the centuries and across the Buddhist world Eminent Buddhist Women reveals the exemplary legacy of Buddhist women through the centuries Despite the Buddha's own egalitarian values Buddhism as a religion has been dominated by men for more than two thousand years With few exceptions the achievements of Buddhist women have remained hidden or ignored The narratives in this book call into question the criteria for eminence in the Buddhist tradition and how these criteria are constructed and controlled Each chapter pays a long overdue tribute to one woman or a group of women from across the Buddhist world including the West Using a variety of sources from orally transmitted legends to firsthand ethnographic research contributors examine the key issues women face in their practice of Buddhist ethics contemplation and social action What emerges are Buddhist principles that transcend gender loving kindness compassion wisdom spiritual attainment and liberation In her chapter What Is a Relevant Role Model Rita Gross describes the need for more stories about Buddhist women particularly those whose feats are not so fabled as to seem out of reach for contemporary practitioners This volume advances that objective mapping the paths of numerous often lesser known women who have dedicated their lives to Buddhism and inspired their communities Buddhadharma Educational and inspirational this important collection will appeal to scholars and practitioners alike Hsiao Lan Hu author of This Worldly Nibbana A Buddhist Feminist Social Ethic for Peacemaking in the Global Community The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist-Christian Studies Carol Anderson, Thomas Cattoi, 2022-09-30 Buddhist Christian dialogue has a long and complex history that stretches back to the first centuries of the common era Comprising 42 international and disciplinarily diverse chapters this volume begins by setting up a framework for examining the nature of Buddhist Christian interreligious dialogue discussing how research in this area has been conducted in the past and considering future theoretical directions Subsequent chapters delve into important episodes in the history of Buddhist Christian dialogue contemporary conversations such as monastic interreligious dialogue multiple religious identity and dual religious practice and Buddhist Christian cooperation in social justice social engagement pastoral care and interreligious education settings The volume closes with a section devoted to comparative and constructive explorations of different speculative themes that range from the theological to the philosophical or experiential This handbook explores how the study of Buddhist Christian relations has been and ought to be done The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist Christian Studies is essential reading for researchers and students interested in Buddhist Christian studies Asian religions and interreligious relationships It will be of interest to those in fields such as anthropology political science theology and history Reading African American Autobiography Eric D. Richmond Eleanor Rosch Andrew Schelling Gary Snyder John Tarrant Thanissaro Bhikkhu Thich Nhat Hanh Claude Anshin Thomas Traleg Kyabgon Rinpoche Francisco J Varela Forged in the Fiery Furnace Diana L. Hayes, 2012 African American spirituality was forged in the fiery furnace of slavery segregation and ongoing racial discrimination in both church and society But African Americans are a people who are strengthened rather than weakened by their experience This volume traces how African Americans have articulated their faith and love of God in language song and daily living Beginning with its spiritual roots in Africa Hayes shows how African American spirituality encompassed and incorporated the experience of slavery and the encounter with Christianity Remarkably African American slaves were able to find in the religion of their oppressors a message of hope affirmation and resistance Through stories song distinctive forms of prayer celebration and prophetic witness Hayes shows how the spirituality of African Americans has nurtured their survival as well as promoting action on behalf of the community and the greater society Tell Me Something About Buddhism Zenju Earthlyn Manuel, 2011-10-01 One of the first African American Zen priests provides clear beautiful and inspiring answers to questions about Buddhist practice Charles Johnson National Book Award winning author of Middle Passage and Turning the Wheel For anyone curious about the teachings of Buddha and modern Buddhist practice Tell Me Something about Buddhism offers the perfect introduction Written by Soto Zen priest Zenju Earthlyn Manuel and organized in an easy to use question and answer format this concise book answers the many common questions people have about Buddhism everything from who was Buddha to why do monks nuns and priests shave their heads Manuel who has been involved in Buddhist practice for over twenty years after growing up in Los Angeles in an African American Christian church intertwines throughout the book her personal experiences as one of the first African American Zen priests Her life in the Sangha her teaching in local communities and her travels around the world meeting other Buddhist practitioners enliven her answers to the most fundamental questions about Buddhist practice accompanied by her charcoal and pencil illustrations As she writes Had I not opened myself to the many teachings from the earth such as Buddha's wisdom it would have been nearly impossible to survive the fires of my soul Offers both the story of her spiritual rite of passage from a black girl to a Buddhist priest and a hands on manual with the basic questions that many are afraid to ask Dr Marlene Jones contributor to Dharma Culture and Color New Voices in Western Buddhism Self and Society Steven Collins, 2013-07-15 This selection of essays originally published between 1988 and 2010 demonstrates that in the study of Buddhism a concern with detailed accuracy in philological and textual specifics can be combined with an attempt to deal with wider and difficult philosophical and sociological issues The first part Pali Literature deals with the historical formation of the Pali Canon with the continuing oral aspects of Pali texts and looking at the entire range of Pali texts with the question What is Literature in Pali The second part The theory and Practice of Not self looks at the Buddhist denial of self as both a philosophical position and as a form of practice one in which a process of self transformative behavioral and psychological training is seen to culminate in the realization that there is no self underlying the ever changing moments of experience The third part Buddhism and Society has two essays reflecting on and extending Louis Dumont's comparative theorizing about the individual and society in East and West and a final contemporary treatment of Buddhist nuns mae chi in Thailand Buddhism both in general and specifically as active in higher education in Bangkok The three essays attempt to build on but go beyond the work of Dumont and behind him Max Weber in thinking about what they would call world renunciation as a phenomenon of society and culture

Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one's humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re-examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self-examination of one's most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one's sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes

The Word Marita Golden, 2011-01-11 Critically acclaimed Black writers reveal how books have shaped their personal lives in often unexpected ways In these thirteen strikingly candid interviews bestselling authors winners of the Pulitzer Prize and writers picked by Oprah's Book Club discuss how the acts of reading and writing have deeply affected their lives by expanding the conceptual borders of their communities and broadening their sense of self Edwidge Danticat movingly recounts the first time she encountered a Black character in a book and how this changed her worldview forever Edward P Jones speaks openly about being raised by an illiterate mother J California Cooper discusses the spiritual sources of her literary inspiration Nathan McCall explains how reading saved his life while in prison Pearl Cleage muses eloquently about how other people's stories help one make one's own way in the world and world renowned historian John Hope Franklin in one of the last interviews he gave before his death touchingly recalls his childhood in the segregated South and how reading opened his mind to life's greater possibilities The stories that emerge from these in-depth interviews not only provide an important record of the creative life of leading Black writers but also explore the vast cultural and spiritual benefits of reading and writing and they support the growing initiative to encourage people to read as both a passion and a pastime

We Saved the Best for You Tricia M. Kress, Robert Lake, 2013-02-11 As standardization and accountability have continued to increase in the 21st century educators and scholars of education have become increasingly frustrated Yet as frustrated as we are it is essential that we not send to our students children grandchildren the message that the past was better and they should have been there Instead we must render a clear vision of what can be Indeed where would we be without the vision we have been freely given to us from great scholars philosophers and artists as well as our own teachers friends neighbors and family We are indebted to carry forward the legacy of these torchbearers to present and future educators This book is a collection of letters to 21st century educators of all age levels and content areas It has been compiled with the goal of fulfilling our responsibility to share with the next generation of educators our vision of the future just as our predecessors and role models shared theirs with us Informed by the past but oriented toward the future this collection aims to inspire in present and future educators hope wisdom and imagination for addressing the educational challenges shaped by bureaucratic economic and cultural forces Authors such as Nel Noddings Sonia Nieto Sandy Grande Riane Eisler Mike Rose William Schubert William Reynolds and many more speak directly to their readers building a relationship with a scholarly backbone and encouraging we saved the best for you because the best is the world you will create
