Medieval Mystic Ruysbroeck Groenenendael 1293 1381:

A Medieval Mystic Dom Vincent Scully, 2015-12-20 An excerpt from the beginning of the first chapter EARLY YEARS AND EDUCATION BLESSED John Ruysbroeck surnamed the Admirable and the Divine Doctor by common consent the greatest Mystic the Low Countries have ever produced was born A D 1293 at Ruysbroeck a village some miles south of Brussels lying between that city and Hal According to the fashion of those days especially with Religious he was named after his birthplace Johnvan Ruysbroeck or John Ruysbroeck The Venerable a Kempis the Latinised form of van Kempen is a case in point Thomas was so named after his native town Kempen though his patronymic was Haemerken Of Ruysbroeck however we know of no other surname neither do his biographers so much as mention his father But like many another great servant of God John was blessed with a good mother a devout woman who trained her child from the cradle to walk in the paths of Christian piety and perfection She is charged with only one fault that she loved her son too tenderly Perhaps we are to understand by this that the poor woman opposed the boy s early aspirations after a more retired life than could be found even in the peaceful shelter of his own pious home This would also explain John s first recorded act At the age of eleven years he ran away from home How many a lad before and since has torn himself away from a loving mother s too fond embrace to quell the ardour of a restless spirit in the quest of adventure John also was eager and dissatisfied but the larger sphere for which he sighed was to be sought along the unaccustomed ways which lead to the sublime heights and the rarified atmosphere of mystic contemplation
