The "Supernatural Powers" in the Marriage Sacrament: Christ's Unique Saving Gift to Husband and Wife Jeff Edward Poulin, 2023-04-10 Entrenched in the teachings of the Church and enriched by the Bible is an untapped wealth of truth and what Pope Pius XI in his encyclical Casti Connubii calls supernatural powers concerning sacramental marriage that awaits those willing to undergo the journey In this book The Supernatural Powers in the Marriage Sacrament those who seek will indeed find that through a systematic and tenable development of marriage its mystery is not only illustrated and unveiled but perpetuated in the supernatural gifts that Christ has embedded in this vocational Sacrament Throughout these pages as the marital union unfolds through the lens of Christ across the Old and New Testaments Christian spouses will be moved by the depth of their own calling and inspired with renewed vigor to pick up the torch and to live out that life a life which has been ordained by God in holiness as a truly unique and efficacious revelation of the redeeming power of Christ In Part I of The Supernatural Powers in the Marriage Sacrament the first seven chapters are specifically designed to lead deacons catechists and lay Catholics especially husbands and wives to learn through a gradual yet intensively biblical and theological journey towards the unveiling of the unique redeeming gift to spouses that which is seen established and empowered through Christ at the Cross Here one finds the specific dynamics of that Sacramental gift unpacked and the sound spiritual evidence laid out for why there is such an absence of this marital fruit in our modern era In Part II Poulin then unpacks in greater detail how marriage and the gender of husband and wife serve as a revelation about man salvation and the Blessed Trinity and just how the religious life falls within that plan without contradiction or constraint Lastly in Part III Jeff Poulin puts under the microscope through the lens of the Church the powerful words of St Paul in 1 Corinthians 7 14 and defends the charge that the simplest Catholic explanation that which is often dismissed merits a serious second look

Revelation in a Pluralistic World Louis Roy, 2022-08-25 Since the Enlightenment the churches have progressively suffered a severe loss of status because of their belief that revelation is realized only in Christianity The suggestion that Christian revelation might be truer than other so called revelations seems to be preposterous This book argues that this insistence has often remained unnuanced and simplistic with the consequence that not only unbelievers as well as believers of other religions but even numerous Christians no longer agree with the primacy of a truth revealed in Jesus Christ The book addresses the difficulties affecting the interpretation of belief given modernity's concerns The volume sets out a provisional synthesis on revelation and it makes available much expository and historical information It correlates distinctions between pair members such as the natural and the supernatural conceptualism and intellectualism heart and reason subjectivity and objectivity limited perspective and universal viewpoint permanence of doctrine and historicity Christian and non Christian claims regarding truth revelation and divine speech moderate and radical pluralism Jesus absolutized and Jesus relativized The thrust of the argument is towards an appropriation of what is best in ancient medieval and modern traditions on revelation This book delineates in an original way a position on revelation that is at once traditional and relevant for today It accepts many values brought to the fore by modernity and draws from exegetes historians philosophers and theologians Its inspiration comes principally from the Bible Thomas Aquinas John Henry Newman and Bernard Lonergan Johannine

Sabbath Conflicts as Juridical Controversy Martin Asiedu-Pepurah, 2001 There is unanimity among Johannine scholars that one distinctive characteristic of the Fourth Gospel is the fact that the evangelist presents Jesus as caught in long drawn out juridical confrontations between himself and the Jews Martin Asiedu Pepurah examines the two Sabbath conflict narratives in the Fourth Gospel from a narrative critical perspective and thus takes a fresh look at the Johannine juridical metaphor In doing so he attempts to pursue a three fold objective First he determines the precise nature of the juridical metaphor used in the two narratives and on the strength of it he undertakes a critical reading of the texts under study with the view to shedding new light on their meaning Then he examines the role of this specific juridical metaphor in the two narratives The question here is for what purpose and how is this specific juridical metaphor used within the narrative framework of the two narratives Finally he explores the historical setting of the two narratives and infers from it the social function the juridical metaphor would have played within the Johannine Sitz im Leben In the light of his results Martin Asiedu Pepurah makes an attempt to examine very briefly the entire section of John 5 1 10 42 to see if the presence of the juridical controversy pattern in this section can throw light on one crucial issue in Johannine research namely the purpose of the Gospel in its present form
