Historical Romance Linguistics Randall Scott Gess, Deborah Arteaga, 2006-01-01 This volume contains 17

studies on historical Romance linguistics within a variety of current theoretical frameworks it includes studies on phonology morphology and syntax focusing solely or comparatively on all five major Romance languages French Italian Portuguese Romanian and Spanish An introduction by the eminent Romance Linguist Jürgen Klausenburger addresses the fit of these studies in the overall development of the field of historical Romance linguistics since the 19th century The studies in this volume demonstrate an organic link between Malkiel's 1961 classic definition of Romance linguistics and the field of Romance linguistics today because just as scholars of the field in the 19th century successfully applied the dominant paradigm of historical linguistics of their time Neogrammarian theory so do the authors contained in the present volume avail themselves of current linguistic advances to achieve equally significant results
