English Language Arts the Kindergarten Way Molly Cochell, Laura Fullmer, 2017-05-02 Kindergarten teachers know that a child's first taste of school should be engaging, active, social, and fun. Yet teachers are presented with a challenge: How do they nurture the holistic, exploratory nature of early childhood while teaching with the intentionality and rigor required to meet learning goals? Let this resource pave the way. English Language Arts the Kindergarten Way contains methods for teaching foundational reading skills, building vocabulary, inspiring and developing writing, and helping children respond to literature and informational text while inherently fulfilling the needs of the whole child. An entire year of activities is included. And all activities are classroom tested and naturally infuse visual art, music, drama, poetry, movement, and puppetry so that kindergartners meet learning goals their way. Education Amendments of 1977 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Human Resources. Subcommittee on Education, Arts, and Humanities, 1978. Woodcock-Johnson IV Nancy Mather, Lynne E. Jaffe, 2016-01-22 Includes online access to new customizable WJ IV score tables, graphs, and forms for clinicians. Woodcock-Johnson IV Reports: Recommendations and Strategies offers psychologists, clinicians, and educators an essential resource for preparing and writing psychological and educational reports after administering the Woodcock-Johnson IV. Written by Drs. Nancy Mather and Lynne E. Jaffe, this text enhances comprehension and use of this instrument and its many interpretive features. This book offers helpful information for understanding and using the WJ IV scores, provides tips to facilitate interpretation of test results, and includes sample diagnostic reports of students with various educational needs from kindergarten to the postsecondary level. The book also provides a wide variety of recommendations for cognitive abilities, oral language, and the achievement areas of reading, written language, and mathematics. It also provides guidelines for evaluators and recommendations focused on special populations such as sensory impairments, autism, English Language Learners, and gifted and twice exceptional students, as well as recommendations for the use of assistive technology. The final section provides descriptions of the academic and behavioral strategies mentioned in the reports and recommendations. The unique access code included with each book allows access to downloadable, easy-to-customize score tables, graphs, and forms. This essential guide facilitates the use and interpretation of the WJ IV Tests of Cognitive Abilities, Tests of Oral Language, and Tests of Achievement. Explains scores and various interpretive features. Offers a variety of types of diagnostic reports. Provides a wide variety of educational recommendations and evidence-based strategies. Teacher as Researcher: Action Research by Elementary Teachers Jay Feng, 2012-12-21 A collection of action research reports by elementary classroom teachers. Reading for Information in Elementary School Nancy Frey, Douglas Fisher, 2007 Reading for Information in Elementary School: Content Literacy Strategies to Build Comprehension was written to give K-5 teachers the tools they need to lay an educational groundwork that promotes students' success with informational text from the early grades. Packed with research-based, classroom-proven strategies, the book follows a before, during, and after reading format that models the most effective approach to reading for information focusing on the processes required to develop content literacy You ll meet the teachers sit in on their lessons witness their students responses and come away from this book with a model for teaching your students to read successfully for information and a handbook of proven strategies to implement Features Examples of instructional strategies This book follows six elementary teachers grades K 5 as they utilize strategies with informational texts These examples are detailed and include student and teacher dialogue to provide readers with the sense they are watching the lesson unfold Each focus instructional strategy is research based The instructional strategies outlined in this book have a research base and have been implemented in schools across the country Margin notes provide readers with additional information and resources Readers are referred to other sources of information at common places that they may have questions A clear process for organizing instruction is provided The strategies and texts presented in the book follow the before during after instructional organization used by teachers to foster reading comprehension Book covers of informational texts Each chapter features the covers and bibliographical information of some of the best informational texts available today
