Connections between time technology and the processes of reading and writing make clear the links between experiences of what appear to be quite different phenomena Reading and writing have functioned together in a particular way to build the world as we have known it for three thousand years These interacting processes have now been transformed at their core and are building a different world one where certainties of the previous era are disappearing and being displaced by what the author sees as a chronic and pervasive mode of cognitive distraction Robert Hassan offers a perspective permeated by a sense of history beginning with the invention of writing and the development of the skill of reading Together with technological developments these provide a unique view of the trajectory of modernity into late modernity and illustrate how the arc of progress has transformed New modes of time technology and reading and writing are helping create a faster world where we know less about more and forget what we know evermore quickly What is the time of a thought Is it possible to measure thinking Can we consider knowledge or information or reading and writing as having temporal rhythms These are questions Hassan tries to answer So unfamiliar are we to thinking in such terms that they sound impossible To a significant degree time thinking and many forms of knowledge are the fruits of subjective experience We connect experiences at superficial levels where people have different experiences that may be objectively the same but our interpretations will always diverge in respect of the reality we confront This intersection of philosophy and communication takes the reader into new realms of analysis It's Not News, It's Fark Drew Curtis, 2007-05-31 A hilarious exposé on the media gone awry from the creator of the wildly popular Fark.com Have you ever noticed certain patterns in the news you see and read each day Perhaps it's the blatant fear mongering in the absence of facts on your local six o'clock news Tsunami could hit the Atlantic any day Everybody panic or the seasonal articles that appear year after year Roads will be crowded this holiday season Thanks AAA It's Not News It's Fark is Drew Curtis's clever examination of the state of the media today and a hilarious look at the go-to stories mass media uses when there's just not enough hard news to fill a newspaper or a news broadcast Drew exposes eight stranger than fiction media patterns that prove just how little reporting is going on in the world of reporters today It's Not News It's Fark examines all the news that was never fit for print in the first place and promises to have you laughing along the way Staatliche Cyberkonflikte Kerstin Zettl-Schabath, 2023-09-20 Welche Rolle spielen nichtstaatliche Akteure sogenannte Proxys in staatlichen Cyberkonflikten Und wie unterscheidet sich regimetypespezifisch das Eskalationsmanagement Kerstin Zettl-Schabath vergleicht mithilfe eines umfassenden Datensatzes für die Jahre 2000-2019 die staatlichen Cyber Proxy Strategien von China Russland den USA und Israel Dabei zeigen sich je nach politischem System
