Lost Letters from Vienna Sue Course,2019-11-01 In 1977 Sue Course discovered a box of airmail letters in the dark recesses of a cupboard written in German Her German was rusty but she could see that most were from her parents and grandparents and were written from the time of the Nazi invasion of Vienna in 1938 The letters revealed a gripping tale of their war and that of their extended family the stories of those who escaped and eventually resettled across the globe and their experiences in that process The story was fleshed out through the later discovery of diaries and far flung family members war memoirs For Sue's family their entitlement to be a part of Viennese society and a citizen of the Austrian nation itself was lost when the Nazis annexed her country Sue was just four when she arrived in Australia with her family too young to appreciate the penurious circumstances of their life at a time where German speaking foreigners were viewed as enemy aliens and where there was little immediate opportunity for non English speaking professionals to find respect or employment in their professions Antipodean life was a far cry from the genteel experience of being raised in Vienna and this story documents superbly the displacement dislocation and immense struggle for those who have had to flee their countries with its destructive consequences loss of identity culture career family and social networks or any acknowledgement of value to the host society

Controlling the Administrative State Mark Aronson, Greg Weeks, 2025-11-13 This book discusses some of the most important issues facing administrative law and related doctrines Leading public law scholars from across the common law world have contributed chapters to recognise the exceptional scholarship and career of Matthew Groves Distinguished Professor at Deakin University Australia Over the last century the power of the administrative state has grown immensely and the scope of administrative law as a field of inquiry has grown with it This collection of essays provides an up to date analysis of some of the most important issues in administrative law in the 2020s including access to justice issues the role purpose and future of ombuds institutions and tribunals government liability within and beyond judicial review integrity bodies lawfare the role of policies in government decisionmaking and the tension between military and civilian systems of justice These topics have been central to the work and career of Matthew Groves Readers interested in public law whether practitioners researchers or students will discover a wealth of engaging and thought provoking considerations of the most topical current issues in administrative law by a selection of prominent academics

Free Hands and Minds Susan Bartie, 2019-09-19 Peter Brett 1918 1975 Alice Erh Soon Tay 1934 2004 and Geoffrey Sawyer 1910 1996 are key yet largely overlooked members of Australia s first community of legal scholars This book is a critical study of how their ideas and endeavours contributed to Australia s discipline of law and the first Australian legal theories It examines how three marginal figures a Jewish man Brett a Chinese woman Tay and a war orphan Sawyer rose to prominence during a transformative period for Australian legal education and scholarship Drawing on in depth interviews with former colleagues and students extensive archival research and an appraisal of their contributions to scholarship and teaching this book explores the three professors international networks and broader social and historical milieux Their pivotal leadership roles in law departments at the University of Melbourne University of Sydney and the Australian National University are also critically assessed Ranging from local experiences and the concerns of a nascent Australian legal academy to the complex transnational phenomena of legal scholarship and theory Free Hands and Minds makes a compelling case for contextualising law and legal culture within society At a time of renewed crisis in legal education and research in the common law world it also offers a vivid nuanced and critical account of the enduring liberal foundations of Australia s discipline of law

Vernacular Architecture: Towards a Sustainable Future C. Mileto, F. Vegas, L. García Soriano, V. Cristini, 2014-08-28 Sustainability is a concept that has monopolised a large number of the scientific debates in a wide range of spheres connected not only with architecture urban planning and construction but also with the product market tourism culture etc However sustainability is indissolubly linked to vernacular architecture and the lessons this architectu

Self, Others and the State Arlie Loughnan, 2019-12-12 Criminal responsibility is now central to criminal law but it is in need of re examination In the context of Australian criminal laws Self Others and the State reassesses

the general assumptions made about the rise to prominence of criminal responsibility in the period since around the turn of the twentieth century It reconsiders the role of criminal responsibility in criminal law arguing that criminal responsibility is significant because it organises key sets of relations between self others and the state as relations of responsibility Detailed studies of decisive moments and developments since the turn of the twentieth century and original explorations of relations of responsibility expose the complexity and dynamism of criminal responsibility and reveal that it is the means by which matters of subjectivity relationality and power make themselves felt in the criminal law
