Callard-Szulgit, 2010-10-16 Parents of gifted students have often experienced the frustration of trying to get an appropriate education for their children in public and private schools Teachers have equally experienced the frustration of trying to educate these students due to classroom demands Over the past two decades Callard Szulgit has accumulated well over 1 000 questions asked by parents in her gifted parenting classes her graduate students of gifted education education colleagues and gifted students themselves This user friendly book offers common sense and educationally informative answers to the questions and dilemmas that parents and teachers seek This book will be of interest to all who seek a fair and equitable education for the gifted Teaching Early Writing and Reading Together Connie Campbell Dierking, 2007 The writing reading connection means more than having your students write under the influence of literature that they have read. Noted author and educator Connie Campbell Dierking shows you how to develop a literacy connected classroom including using oral storytelling to scaffold primary reading and writing. She supplies more than 50 mini lessons organized by their classroom function to help you explicitly teach foundational literacy skills during writer's workshop or whole class and small group reading instruction. Dierking encourages you to make the most of the writing reading connection by thinking about some basic questions when you're crafting your literacy instruction: How can I connect the conversations in reading and writing workshop? What can I learn about the readers in my classroom through their writing? What can my students learn about reading through writing? How can I teach young writers to support their readers? How can I teach readers how to use a writer's supports intentionally? Teaching Kids To Love The Earth Marina

Lachecki, 2002-07-29 Teaching Kids to Love the Earth is a collection of 186 earth caring activities designed for use with children of all ages to help them experience and appreciate the earth. This book leads you through the author's Sense of Wonder Circle: curiosity, exploration, discovery, sharing, and passion. Each chapter contains a story, instructions for a main activity, suggestions for related activities, and a list of additional resources. Teaching Kids to Love the Earth will enable you and the children you work with to experience a sense of wonder about the world we share. Models for Teaching

Writing-Craft Target Skills Marcia Sheehan Freeman, 2005 Writing is best taught through models. Showing K-8 students how other authors apply the writing craft skills that you teach is a vital part of writing instruction. This innovative resource matches 24 fundamental writing craft Target Skills to a wide selection of fiction and non-fiction books, providing a solid set of strong models for writing craft instruction. Both trade books and texts available only from educational publishers are included. Most of these are picture books which are particularly engaging for young readers. A Target Skill cross index helps you reference models and multiple craft skills. Teaching Elaboration and Word Choice Leann Nickelsen, 2001-08 Watch your students' writing confidence soar as they learn how to use lively verbs, colorful adjectives, and specific nouns to enhance their paragraphs, essays, and stories. This classroom-tested resource is jam-packed with mini lessons and activities on topics like action verbs, detailed description, personification, metaphor, and lots more. Plus engaging reproducibles, rubrics, bulletin board ideas, and student samples. For use with Grades 4-8.

Teaching Art Rhian Bryn-Jolson, 2010 This resource is written for classroom teachers, art education specialists, childcare workers, artists working in schools, parents who home school their children, and school administrators. It can also be used as a university textbook for Education students. The book provides a framework for teaching art in a way that is integrated with regular classroom practice and mindful of current art curriculum outcomes. Although the book focuses on art for primary and middle school students from pre-school to grade eight, Teaching Art is also useful to art specialists at the high school level who are looking for new strategies or project ideas to add to their established secondary programs Revised and expanded from the author s previous resource Art Illustration This resource integrates new developments in art education
