Teaching for Deep Comprehension Linda J. Dorn, Carla Soffos, 2005 Discusses reading comprehension and offers ways for teachers to develop it in their students exploring the cognitive and social aspects of comprehension while viewing it as an active process Using Art to Teach Reading Comprehension Strategies Jennifer Klein, Elizabeth Stuart

Whitehead, 2012-12-14 Using Art to Teach Reading Comprehension Strategies Lesson Plans for Teachers will provide both classroom and art teachers with an overview of six different reading strategies and integrated reading and art lessons that they can implement in their own classrooms and schools Addressing specific National Visual Art Standards Common Core Standards for Reading and National Reading Standards this book is designed so that classroom and art teachers work either in collaboration in schools where there are visual arts teachers or independently if school staff does not include a visual arts instructor This teacher friendly easy to use book offers background information on the strategies and lessons that allow teachers to copy student materials and begin implementing this approach in their classrooms right away Art can be a critical tool in helping students develop and refine reading strategies When reading strategies are presented in the context of art first the students are better able to incorporate these tools into their reading Stuart and Klein prove that art provides the scaffolding children need to move from a text free environment to a text environment Lessons and Units for Closer

Reading, Grades K-2 Nancy Boyles, 2016-02-22 Ever wished for comprehension lessons that get students where they need to be in reading With Lessons and Units for Closer Reading K 2 you get just that 20 initial close reading standards based lessons and 80 follow up comprehension skill lessons that expertly scaffold young readers The lessons arranged into 5 units of study include 12 illustrated Active Reader Cards printable in four color Day by day how to s for initial and follow up lessons 12 Formative Assessments with graphic support and options for oral and written tasks Performance criteria so you can adjust your instruction Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom Carol Brennan Jenkins, Deborah Jean Downs White, 2007 If you ve experienced the delight and wonderment that children bring to nonfiction read alouds take the next step and invite nonfiction authors into your classroom through author study Like its fiction counterpart nonfiction author studies engage students deeply and help them interact with texts in multiple ways and Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom shows you how to guide and support these interactions while honoring readers fascination with the world around them Drawing on the latest research and the experiences of classroom teachers Carol Brennan Jenkins and Deborah White make the case for studying nonfiction writers and their books with zeal and rigor They give you a strong rationale for nonfiction author study outlining how and why it s effective and what its principal goals are Then they turn over the discussion to five teachers who showcase units they developed and implemented in their own classrooms Each unit investigates a well known and well loved nonfiction author Gail Gibbons The Pumpkin Book Ann Morris On the Go Teamwork Play and What Was It Like Grandma Jim Arnosky The All About series Jean Fritz Can t You Make Them Behave King George and George Washington's Mother Sandra Markle Outside and Inside Snakes Each author study takes you step by step through its key questions themes and instructional moments providing everything you'll need along the way including worksheets booklists biographical information web based resources student samples curriculum maps and links to literacy standards Author study isn't just for fiction anymore Get ready to find out why Read the wisdom of practicing teachers and explore what nonfiction author study can do for you Pick up Nonfiction Author Studies in the Elementary Classroom teach its units and find a fresh way to deepen your readers connection to the captivating world of nonfiction texts

How to Align Literacy Instruction, Assessment, and Standards Nancy L. Akhavan, 2004 In this book Nancy Akhavan details the stories and strategies that enabled her school to move from under performing status to one in which students achieve and teachers have a whole new understanding of targeted instruction sensitive assessment and meaningful curriculum There is much to appreciate in what she says from her attention to thinking small and understanding the power of the details her emphasis on planning and goal setting to the seriousness with which she takes the standards and incorporates them into the life of the classroom Drawing on the work of the best in the business Lucy Calkins David and Yvonne Freeman and Tony Alvarado Akhavan made professional development the heartbeat of her school as she helped her faculty understand that their work begins and ends with continuous assessment of their students Now she helps readers of her book learn how child centered assessment leads to strategic instruction how to best support multilingual learners how to organize for yearlong learning how to think through precise workshop instruction in minilessons how to develop meaningful curriculum around units of study how to create a vibrant school community where standards and accountability stem from regular assessment and examination of instructional practices Akhavan provides immediately useful information for any elementary teacher principal or curriculum developer Read her book and understand how to use standards as a way to connect meaningful instruction to students not as a bar that students have to reach or a barrier to real teaching and learning
