Tutorial Programming Productivity Capers Jones, 1986 This tutorial volume on productivity issues for the eighties attempts to place programming in context with other disciplines and address five major topics programming measurements programming life cycle analysis programming equipment and design methods programming environmental and the new science of software Abstract Critical Condition Donald L. Barlett, James B. Steele, 2004-10-05 Award winning journalists expose the horrific practices within America's health care system profiling patients and doctors and offering startling personal stories to illuminate what's gone wrong Every American ought to read this book The Plain Dealer Tens of millions of people with inadequate or no medical coverage dirty examination and operating rooms in doctors offices and hospitals more people killed by mistakes than by many diseases This may sound like the predicament of a failed state but this is America s health care reality today The United States spends more per capita on health care than any other nation yet benefits are shrinking and life expectancy here is shorter than in countries that spend significantly less Meanwhile HMOs pharmaceutical companies and hospital chains reap tremendous profits as our elected politicians beholden to these same companies enact piecemeal measures that lead to needless deaths refusing to come to grips with a system on the verge of collapse A superb investigative work that is enormously compelling and addresses the concerns of every American Critical Condition offers an insightful prescription for getting the system back on the right track

Tutorial on Software Restructuring Robert S. Arnold, 1986 This tutorial is devoted to putting structure back into software whether the lack of structure results from software maintenance or from software development Preface

The Ethos of Medicine in Postmodern America Arnold R. Eiser, 2013-12-24 Has postmodern American culture so altered the terrain of medical care that moral confusion and deflated morale multiply faster than both technological advancements and ethical resolutions The Ethos of Medicine in Postmodern

America is an attempt to examine this question with reference to the cultural touchstones of our postmodern era consumerism computerization corporatization and destruction of meta narratives The cultural insights of postmodern thinkers such as Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Lyotard Baudrillard Bauman and Levinas help elucidate the changes in healthcare delivery that are occurring early in the twenty first century Although only Foucault among this group actually focused his critique on medical care itself their combined analysis provides a valuable perspective for gaining understanding of contemporary changes in healthcare delivery It is often difficult to envision what is happening in the psychosocial cultural dynamic of an epoch as you experience it Therefore it is useful to have a technique for refracting those observations through the lens of another system of thought The prism of postmodern thought offers such a device with which to view the eclipse of changing medical practice Any professional practice is always thoroughly embedded in the social and cultural matrix of its society and the medical profession in America is no exception In drawing upon the insights of key Continental thinkers such and American scholars this book does not necessarily endorse the views of postmodernism but trusts that much can be learned from their insight Furthermore its analysis is informed by empirical information from health services research and the sociology of medicine Arnold R Eiser develops a new understanding of healthcare delivery in the twenty first century and suggests positive developments that might be nurtured to avoid the barren Silicon Cage of corporate bureaucratized medical practice Central to this analysis are current healthcare issues such as the patient centered medical home clinical practice guidelines and electronic health records This interdisciplinary examination reveals insights valuable to anyone working in postmodern thought medical sociology bioethics or health services research
