The 2022 first-round pick led all wide receivers in snaps, routes, targets, receptions, yards, fantasy points and top-10 fantasy weeks (nine) last season. Jefferson was fantasy's top-scoring WR despite some bad luck in the TD department (eight TDs, 10.6 expected), and he has ranked top-3 in and score targets each of the last two seasons. The 24-year-old should be the first wide receiver off the board and is a strong option if you have the first overall pick in your draft.                                         |     |      |      |     |     |     |        |        |

The dual-threat back has finished fourth or better at RB in fantasy points three of the past four seasons and his 34 TDs since the start of 2021 are 12 more than any other player. Ekeler caught 107 passes last season (55th most in the entire NFL) and he's finished no lower than second among RBs in targets, receptions, rushing yards and receiving TDs each of the past two seasons. Ekeler's receiving ability supplies him with an extremely high floor and his heavy usage in a good Chargers offense makes him a strong candidate for the first pick in 2023 fantasy drafts. |     |      |      |     |     |     |        |        |
