

name, no spark ever came out of his wheel, while Ranga created a regular pyrotechnic display and passing children stood transfixed by the spectacle. "All right," Ranga would retort, "I do not grudge the 65 poor fellow his luck, but he will impart to your knife the sharpness of an egg; after that I won't be able to do anything for you. You must not think that anyone and everyone could handle steel. Most of these fellows don't know the difference between a knife
 70 blade and a hammerhead."

Ranga's customers loved his banter and appreciated his work, which he always guaranteed for sixty days. "If it gets dull before then, you may call me." If he were to be assailed for defective
 75 execution, he could always turn around and retort that so much depended upon the quality of metal, and the action of sun and rain, and above all the care in handling, but he never argued with his customers; he just resharpened the knives free of cost on his next 80 round. Customers always liked to feel that they had won a point, and Ranga would say to himself, "After all, it costs nothing, only a few more turns of the wheel and a couple of sparks off the stone to please the eye."

Over the course of the passage, the main focus shifts from a

- A) detailed account of a character's livelihood to a lengthy criticism of the character's methods of achieving a goal.
- B) humorous anecdote about a character to an illustration of the character's ethical changes over time.
- C) good-natured interrogation of a character to an extended description of the character's professional interactions.
- D) detached inquiry into a character's motivations to a passionate defense of the character's actions.

As used in line 1, "pressed" most nearly means

- A) urged.
- B) occupied.
- C) rushed.
- D) afflicted.

The passage indicates that compared to the past, Ranga now

- A) can afford to be charitable to others.
- B) indulges more often in daydreams.
- C) sharpens fewer types of blades.
- D) can attract a younger group of customers.

Which choice best supports the idea that Ranga offers a service that many do not consider a necessity?

- A) Lines 8-14 ("Not only . . . millionaire")
- B) Lines 14-17 ("You might . . . things")
- C) Lines 31-33 ("At the . . . services")
- D) Lines 41-42 ("Getting . . . mission")

It can reasonably be inferred from the passage that the tailors and barbers Ranga encounters are

- A) strictly formal in their conduct.
- B) somewhat hypocritical in their actions.
- C) openly sarcastic in their responses.
- D) unreasonably demanding in their expectations.

College Admissions Cracked Jill Margaret Shulman, 2019-08-06 How to help your kid navigate the college admissions process from scheduling standardized tests to writing essays month by month girlfriend s guide style So your child is a high school junior You ve heard other parents with kids older than yours whisper the word college like it was a terminal disease You ve seen their taut maniacal grins as they try to hold it together The process of weathering and conquering the college admissions process with a teenager is a daunting affair for many Advice will pour in through friends your child s guidance counselor and your mother s neighbor s cousin Thankfully Jill Margaret Shulman a college admissions coach application evaluator college writing instructor essayist author and empathetic parent is here to be your fiercest ally She ll guide you through the entire crazy ritual that college admissions has become month by month breath by deep cleansing breath until you drop your kid off at college where she will ignore your phone calls and texts Come as you are whether chill or roiling with anxiety and Shulman along with a platoon of experts and fellow parents will help you maintain your strength and sense of self worth so easily lost somewhere between your teenager s screaming I hate you You re ruining my life and typing your credit card number into the College Board s website for the twentieth time You ve got college admissions cracked and now this book has got your back

The Years That Matter Most Paul Tough, 2019-09-12 What has gone wrong in our universities And how do we make it right When Amy applied to university she thought she d be judged purely on her merits But she never thought that her family background would have as much impact on her future as her grades When KiKi arrived at university she knew she could be the only black woman in her class But she didn t know how out of place she would feel nor how unwelcoming her peers would be When Orry graduated from university he was told he d probably land a six figure salary But he wasn t told he d end up barely scraping a living wage struggling to feed his children Drawing on the stories of hundreds of American students The Years That Matters Most is a revelatory account of a university system in crisis Paul Tough bestselling author of How Children Succeed exposes a world where small town colleges go bust while the most prestigious raise billions every year where overstretched admissions officers are forced to pick rich candidates over smart ones where black and working class students are left to sink or swim on uncaring campuses Along the way he uncovers cutting edge research from the academics leading the way to a new kind of university one where students succeed not because of their background but because of the quality of their minds The result is a call to arms for universities that work for everyone and a manual for how we can make it happen

Adolescent Psychology in Today's World Michael J. Nakkula, Andrew J. Schneider-Muñoz, 2018-11-02 This groundbreaking three volume set spotlights how conditions around the world are affecting the healthy development of adolescents in their respective environments on all six continents Continually unstable or perpetually poor economic conditions globalization and rapid technological change are just three of the forces affecting a group 1 2 billion strong today a demographic poised to become our world leaders and catalysts in the not too distant future the world's adolescents Led by two editors who have been dedicated to studying adolescent development worldwide for decades this novel collection of works from contributors in more than 40 countries emphasizes how possibilities for healthy mental and physical development are affected by the difficulties youths face in their countries and how these challenges have shaped and are shaping contemporary teenage life today The set comprehensively addresses issues for adolescents across the globe such as the day to day challenges of poverty inadequate education violence or war disease reproductive matters globalization and technological challenges and more while also providing a strengths based focus in the volumes showing how and why some teenagers in each country have surmounted the challenges and forged stronger characters to better their worlds These stories document more than personal victories and their experiences matter to far more than the adolescents themselves In its State of the World's Children 2011 report UNICEF noted that the world community needs to turn its attention to adolescents in need explaining that focusing on this large and potentially powerful group makes economic sense as well as being a necessary step in working towards achieving human justice By addressing the risks challenges and strengths of teenagers as a group in countries worldwide this work serves to break the cycle of poverty violence discrimination and death for adolescents
