and others in various Speech related issues like speech synthesis speech recognition etc Theorizing World Cinema Lúcia Nagib,Chris Perriam,Rajinder Dudrah,2011-11-30 This innovative book is about the place of world cinema in the cultural imaginary It also repositions world cinema in a wider discursive space than is usually the case and treats it as an object of theoretical enquiry rather than as a commercial label The editors and distinguished group of contributors offer a range of approaches and case studies whose organizing principle is the developing idea of polycentrism as applied to cinema They refine and redefine key concepts in film studies including identification and identity narrative and realism allegory and the national project auteurism and the popular art and genre They re evaluate how cinema shapes and responds to the philosophical cultural and political effects of transnationalism and cosmopolitanism in the age of the moving image and explore the interconnectedness of films produced worldwide as well as the links between cinema and other visual cultural forms The contributors include John Caughie Felicia Chan Tiago de Luca Rajinder Dudrah Song Hwee Lim Laura Mulvey Lucia Nagib Geoffrey Nowell Smith Chris Perriam Ashish Rajadhyaksha Paul Julian Smith and Ismail Xavier Going Broke Stuart Vyse,2018-08-01 Over the last four decades debt bankruptcy and home foreclosures have risen to epidemic levels and the personal savings rate has sunk dangerously low Why in the richest nation on earth can t Americans hold on to their money First published in 2008 Stuart Vyse s Going Broke described the epidemic of personal debt that existed in the years leading up to the Great Recession and anticipated the home mortgage crisis that started it Ten years later a fully updated new edition tackles the post recession era of economic recovery Today total household debt has actually surpassed pre recession levels and some of the same problems that preceded the crash are back again But the shape of our troubles has changed the new face of financial failure features auto repossession bankruptcy eviction wage garnishment and being sued for unpaid bills Vyse offers a unique psychological perspective on the financial behavior of the many Americans today who find they cannot make ends meet illuminating these and other causes of our wildly self destructive spending habits But he doesn t entirely blame the victim arguing instead that the mountain of debt burying so many of us is the inevitable byproduct of America s turbo charged economy together with social and technological trends that undermine our self control This new edition illuminates everything from the rise of the credit card and ballooning student loan debt to the expansion of new shopping opportunities provided by social media revealing how vast changes in American society over the last 40 years have greatly complicated our relationship with money Vyse concludes with both personal advice for the individual who wants to achieve greater financial stability and with pointed recommendations for economic and social change that will help promote the financial health of all Americans Performing Authorship Cecilia Sayad,2013-09-17 The figure of the auteur continues to haunt the study of film resisting both the poststructuralist charges that pointed to its absence and the histories of production that have described its pitfalls In an era defined by the instability of identities and the recycling of works Performing Authorship offers a refreshingly new take on the cinematic auteur proposing that the challenges that once accelerated this figure's critical demise should instead pump new life into it This book is about the drama of creative processes in essay documentary and fiction films with particular emphasis on the effects that the filmmaker's body exerts on our sense of an authorial presence It is an illuminating analysis of films by Jean Luc Godard Woody Allen Agnes Varda Orson Welles Jean Rouch Eduardo Coutinho and Sarah Turner that shows directors shifting between opposite movements towards exposure and masking oscillating between the assertion and divestiture of their authorial control In the process Cecilia Sayad argues the film author is not necessarily at the work's origin nor does it constitute the end product What this new concept of performing authorship describes is the making and unmaking of a subject

Realities, Challenges, Visions? Towards a New Foreign Cultural and Educational Policy Robertson-von Trotha, Caroline Y., 2022-04-05 Changing realities global power shifts and societal upheavals are resulting in new tasks and challenges for Foreign Cultural and Educational Policy In an age of globalisation digitisation and growing nationalism there is a particular need to inquire into the notion of responsibility and available spaces of action How can strategies and networks for successful international and intercultural cooperation be drawn up and what role do civil society actors play

How We Learn Benedict Carey, 2014-09-09 In the tradition of The Power of Habit and Thinking Fast and Slow comes a practical playful and endlessly fascinating guide to what we really know about learning and memory today and how we can apply it to our own lives From an early age it is drilled into our heads Restlessness distraction and ignorance are the enemies of success We're told that learning is all self discipline that we must confine ourselves to designated study areas turn off the music and maintain a strict ritual if we want to ace that test memorize that presentation or nail that piano recital But what if almost everything we were told about learning is wrong And what if there was a way to achieve more with less effort In How We Learn award winning science reporter Benedict Carey sifts through decades of education research and landmark studies to uncover the truth about how our brains absorb and retain information What he discovers is that from the moment we are born we are all learning quickly efficiently and automatically but in our zeal to systematize the process we have ignored valuable naturally enjoyable learning tools like forgetting sleeping and daydreaming Is a dedicated desk in a quiet room really the best way to study Can altering your routine improve your recall Are there times when distraction is good Is repetition necessary Carey's search for answers to these questions yields a wealth of strategies that make learning more a part of our everyday lives and less of a chore By road testing many of the counterintuitive techniques described in this book Carey shows how we can flex the neural muscles that make deep learning possible Along the way he reveals why teachers should give final exams on the first day of class why it's wise to interleave subjects and concepts when learning any new skill and when it's smarter to stay up late prepping for that presentation than to rise early for one last cram session And if this requires some suspension of disbelief that's because the research defies what we've been told throughout our lives about how best to learn The brain is not like a muscle at least not in any straightforward sense It is something else altogether sensitive to mood to timing to circadian rhythms as well as to location and environment It doesn't take orders well to put it mildly If the brain is a learning machine then it is an eccentric one In How We Learn Benedict Carey shows us how to exploit its quirks to our advantage
