Folklore and Social Media Andrew Peck, Trevor J. Blank, 2020-12-07 Ten years after the publication of the foundational edited collection Folklore and the Internet Andrew Peck and Trevor J. Blank bring an essential update of scholarship to the study of digital folklore Folklore and Social Media A unique virtual hybridized platform for human communication social media is more dynamic ubiquitous and nuanced than the internet ever was by itself and the majority of Americans use it to access and interact with digital source materials in more advanced and robust ways This book features twelve chapters ranging in topics from legend transmission and fake news to case studies of memes joke cycles and Twitter hashtag campaigns and offers fresh insights on digital heritage and web archiving The editors and contributors take both the digital and folklore elements seriously because social media fundamentally changes folk practices in new though often invisible ways Social media platforms encourage hybrid performances that appear informal and ordinary while also offering significant space to obfuscate backstage behaviors through editing and retakes The result is that expression online becomes increasingly reminiscent of traditional forms of face to face interaction while also hiding its fundamental differences Folklore and Social Media demonstrates various ways to refine methods and analyses in order to develop a better understanding of the informal and traditional dynamics that define an era of folklore and social media It is an invaluable addition to the literature on digital folklore scholarship that will be of interest to students and scholars alike Contributors Sheila Bock Peter M Broadwell Bill Ellis Jeana Jorgensen Liisi Laineste John Laudun Linda J Lee Lynne S McNeill Ryan M Milner Whitney Phillips Vwani Roychowdhury Timothy R Tangherlini Tok Thompson Elizabeth Tucker Kristiana Willsey propagated by individuals in online environments The editors develop the concept of online othering as a tool through which to analyse and make sense of the myriad toxic and harmful behaviours which are being created through or perpetuated via the use of communication technologies such as the internet social media and the internet of things The book problematises the dichotomy assumed between real and virtual spaces by exploring the construction of online abuse victims experiences resistance to online othering and the policing of interpersonal cyber crime The relationship between various socio political institutions and experiences of online hate speech are also explored Online Othering explores the extent to which forms of information technologies facilitate exacerbate and or promote the enactment of traditional offline offences such as domestic abuse and stalking It focuses on the construction and perpetration of online abuse through examples such as the far right the alt right and Men s Rights Activists It also explores experiences of and resistance to online abuse via examples such as victims experiences of revenge porn online abuse and misogyny transphobia disability hate crime and the ways in which online othering is intersectional Finally the collection addresses the role of the police and other agencies in terms of their interventions and the regulation and governance of virtual space s Contributions to the volume come from fields including sociology communication and media studies psychology criminology political studies information science and gender studies
