Fremdbestimmte Freude Andreas Schoenrock, 2021-02-26 Der Einfluss werbetreibender Marken auf die Musikkulturen der Gegenwart ist ungeachtet ihrer dortigen Omnipresenz bislang kaum Gegenstand musikwissenschaftlicher Forschung Andreas Schoenrocks Pionierarbeit Fremdbestimmte Freude legt die autoritative Wirkkraft von Marken und Werbeindustrie auf kontemporäre populäre Musikkulturen im jungen 21. Jahrhundert offen und untersucht die von diesem Markenmandat ausgehenden musikalischen Homogenisierungseffekte Die transparente Darstellung des Zusammenhangs zwischen werbetreibenden Marken und Musikentwicklung kulminiert in der detaillierten Analyse eines prototypischen Beispiels für synchronisationsfreundliche Musik Pharrell Williams Happy

Global Meets Digital Vinod Jain, 2023-06-02 The world today is at the intersection of two megatrends Globalization and Digitalization a business revolution unfolding in real time Global Meets Digital captures the many nuances of this revolution succinctly including its impact on our lives and business An immediate implication of this revolution is that the economic principles that underpinned business and strategy for hundreds of years such as diminishing returns to scale and resource scarcity are no longer valid for a large and growing number of products and services The book will challenge you to think differently not just about digital products but also about physical products In the global digital world products are of three kinds physical digital and smart machines products that are both physical and digital and connected to the internet a distinction missed by most books on strategy and global business The economics of each kind of products is distinct from that of the others which has strategic implications for all kinds of businesses implications such as how to compete and how to create and capture value With several mini case studies and over 100 company examples the book covers themes and cutting edge issues like the paradox of globalization digital disruption disruptive business models exponential technologies Internet of Things competition in digital markets winner take all market dynamics Industry 4.0 how to innovate strategizing for the New Normal and value creation and value capture in both B2C and B2B contexts The book derives its underpinnings from the practice of global and digital business while theory remains in the background Intended specifically for an executive professional audience Global Meets Digital should also be of value to business students and professors learning to dip their toes into a digital world Vinod Jain is an expert in global and digital strategy award winning professor Fulbright Scholar and author of an MBA textbook Global Strategy He taught at the Rutgers Business School Newark and New Brunswick and the Robert H. Smith School of Business University of Maryland College Park At Maryland he was also the Founding Director of the federally funded Center for International Business Education and Research and Academic Director of Smith School's Executive MBA program in China Since leaving Maryland he has taught in China Denmark Finland Poland and India as a visiting or term professor His opinion pieces have appeared in The Washington Post The Baltimore Sun Mensa Bulletin and Economic Times and Mint India's 1 and 2 business dailies among other media In the past he worked as a middle and senior level executive with American and British multinationals Vinod has a PhD in

be copied and distributed has unleashed a wave of piracy with disastrous effects on revenue Cheap easy self publishing is eroding the position of these gatekeepers and guardians of culture Does this revolution herald the collapse of culture as some commentators claim Far from it In Digital Renaissance Joel Waldfogel argues that digital technology is enabling a new golden age of popular culture a veritable digital renaissance By reducing the costs of production distribution and promotion digital technology is democratizing access to the cultural marketplace More books songs television shows and movies are being produced than ever before Nor does this mean a tidal wave of derivative poorly produced kitsch analyzing decades of production and sales data as well as bestseller and best of lists Waldfogel finds that the new digital model is just as successful at producing high quality successful work as the old industry model and in many cases more so The vaunted gatekeeper role of the creative industries proves to have been largely mythical The high costs of production have stifled creativity in industries that require ever bigger blockbusters to cover the losses on ever more expensive failures Are we drowning in a tide of cultural silt or living in a golden age for culture The answers in Digital Renaissance may surprise you

Music and Digital Media Georgina Born, 2022-09-12 Anthropology has neglected the study of music and this needs to be redressed This book sets out to show how and why It does so by bringing music to the subfield of digital anthropology arguing that digital anthropology has much to gain by expanding its horizons to music becoming more interdisciplinary by reference to digital media studies music and sound studies Music and Digital Media is the first comparative ethnographic study of the impact of digital media on music worldwide It offers a radical and lucid new theoretical framework for understanding digital media through music showing that music is today where the promises and problems of the digital assume clamouring audibility while acting as a testing ground for innovations in the digital cultural industries The book contains ten chapters eight of which present comprehensive original ethnographies The chapters between them addresses popular folk and art musics in the global South and North including Kenya Argentina India Canada and the UK Europe with each chapter providing a different regional or digital focus The book is unique in bringing ethnographic research on popular folk and art musics from the global North and South into a comparative framework on a large scale and creates an innovative new paradigm for comparative anthropology Praise for Music and Digital Media This exciting volume forges new ground in the study of local conditions institutions and sounds of digital music in the Global South and North The book's planetary scope and its commitment to the messiness of ethnographic sites and concepts amplifies emergent configurations and meanings of music the digital and the aesthetic Marina Peterson University of Texas Austin The global drama of music's digitisation elicits extreme responses from catastrophe to piratical opportunism but between them lie more nuanced perspectives This timely absolutely necessary collection applies anthropological understanding to a deliriously immersive field bringing welcome clarity to complex processes whose impact is felt far beyond what we call music David Toop London College of Communication Spanning continents and academic disciplines the rich ethnographies contained in Music and

Digital Media makes it obligatory reading for anyone wishing to understand the complex contradictory and momentous effects that digitization is having on musical cultures Eric Drott University of Texas Austin This superb collection with an authoritative overview as its introduction represents the state of the art in studies of the digitalisation of music It is also a testament to what anthropology at its reflexive best can offer the rest of the social sciences and humanities David Hesmondhalgh University of Leeds Music and Digital Media is a groundbreaking update to our understandings of sound media digitization and music Truly transdisciplinary and transnational in scope it innovates methodologically through new models for collaboration multi sited ethnography and comparative work It also offers an important defense of and advancement of theories of mediation Jonathan Sterne McGill University Music and Digital Media is a nuanced exploration of the burgeoning digital music scene across both the global North and the global South Ethnographically rich and theoretically sophisticated this collection will become the new standard for this field Anna Tsing co editor of Feral Atlas The More than Human Anthropocene
