and dysfluency in adults and teenagers and builds upon some of the approaches explored in the Dysfluency Resource Book. The book draws on the expert knowledge of contributors from a wide range of fields such as specialist speech and language therapy, education, psychology and youth work with a focus on presenting practical guidance for those working in this complex area. This valuable resource has chapters exploring the latest clinical developments such as acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT) and narrative therapy. Provides in depth discussion of some established therapeutic practices including avoidance reduction therapy and group work. Offers concrete application to theory both the social and medical models guiding the reader on how to integrate new evidence into clinical practice. Provides a wealth of activities and photocopiable handouts that can be used in practice. Designed for clinicians and students working with teenagers and adults who stammer. This flexible and practical book embeds an ethos of reflection and adaptation. The detailed overview of therapeutic approaches allows the reader to explore a wide range of techniques building a strong foundation of knowledge from which to tailor and develop their own practice. YC Young Children, 2003 School Library Journal, 2004

Designing Web-Based Training William Horton, 2000-02-23. The surge in the number of online training sites has created an unprecedented demand for experts who know all aspects of Web based training (WBT) site design. Written by bestselling author William Horton, this book provides the hands on and practical guidance that trainers demand. Packed with over 100 examples, this well illustrated guide walks you through every phase of designing WBT from analyzing your course requirements and assessing the needs of potential students to designing a course for a global audience. You'll find out how to combine elements into effective and interesting learning sequences, discover how to overcome any technical hurdle that may arise, how to offer materials that motivate learning and how to use Web technologies to create 21st century alternatives to traditional courses. Praise for Designing Web Based Training: Horton has done it again! He's addressed the cutting edge problem of Web based training design with his pragmatic research based approach. His work is task oriented and down to earth. He doesn't waste our time with excessive educational philosophy. In short, comprehensive overview, practical advice, engaging presentation. Robert E. Horn, Author Visual Language Global Communication for the 21st Century. As each new media wave is adopted for instructional purposes, there is a lag in effective exploitation of the unique features the medium brings for supporting learning. Designing Web Based Training bridges the gap by providing a rich and detailed reference. Ruth Clark, EdD, President Clark Training Consulting. Designers have been seeking guidance on how to exploit the Web's distribution potential while combining it with powerful instructional programs. Horton provides structure, stimulation and substance in this important book. Web based training is definitely what is happening now. Designing Web Based Training will be a de facto classic in the field. Gloria Gery, Principal Gery Associates. Author Making CBT Happen.
