All You Can Pay Anna Bernasek, D.T. Mongan, 2015-05-26 You don't care who can access your data because you have nothing to hide But what if corporations were using that data to control your decisions As millions of consumers carry on unaware powerful corporations race to collect more and more data about our behaviors needs and desires This massive trove of data represents one of the most valuable assets on the planet In All You Can Pay Anna Bernasek and D.T. Mongan show how companies use what they know about you to determine how much you are willing to pay for everything you buy From college tuition to plane tickets to groceries to medicine companies already set varying prices based on intimate knowledge of individual wants and purchasing power As the consumer age fades into history rapidly changing prices and complex offers tailored to each individual are spreading like a fog over the free market Data giants know everything about us before we enter stores or open our browsers We may think that the Internet lets us find the best deals but the extensive information companies have about us means that the price we see tends toward the maximum they know we can pay In a momentous shift the economics of information will turn our economy on its head Fair bargaining is over

Most companies today are firmly on the social and environmental issues bandwagon like bees around a honey pot from plastic in oceans through to diversity As a result people are increasingly distrustful of these efforts which they view as cheap marketing stunts meant to wow people into buying more Try to fly like a superman and you will come down like a tin of soup Market economists have long told us that we're driven only by money and status but the inherent human truth that cuts across age culture and gender uncovers a stronger force we wish to be in charge of our own lives and our own happiness Through extensive growth and affinity research world renowned purpose pioneer Thomas Kolster uncovers a simple answer that is key to driving marketing growth in the 21st century if you put people in control of the marketing mix from products to promotion they can grow and in turn grow your organisation This book explains the meteoric rise of a company like AirBnB how a 20 something Swede Maria de la Croix built a global coffee empire like Wheelys in just a few years and how a group of friends hanging out in a bar in Melbourne created one of the largest global non profits fighting for men's health Movember and how you can empower people to do the same Today's power no longer rests in the hands of the privileged few but in the talented many It is time for you to unleash that power in numbers Drawing on top line marketing case studies and in depth interviews Kolster demonstrates how people are truly motivated to act when they're in charge of their own life and happiness Who can you help me become is the one essential question you need to be asking and acting on to chart a new course for your organisation changing behaviours at scale and unlocking sustainable growth that benefits all
