A Brain Tumor Changes Everything Jan Woltmann, 2021-03-08 What would you do if an inoperable tumor occupied the brainstem of your young adult son What would your next steps be How would you begin to pray In 2011 Jan Woltmann's twenty one year old son Nate was diagnosed with brain cancer the cancer was lethal the situation tragic and hope gone Medical science did everything possible through aggressive radiation and the strongest chemotherapy to delay the tumor's advance even as Jan and her husband slipped deeper into darkness and grief The couple did all the things parents do in the wake of heartbreak they wept ached prayed and planned for the worst loss imaginable This is a story about suffering that sets a place for you at the kitchen table around the Christmas tree and inside the waiting rooms at CancerCare This is a story for old souls those for whom life has ripened either suddenly or over time and who find themselves in search of life's mystery and meaning in the midst of sorrow Following a compelling medical narrative and textured by contemplative Christian thinkers A Brain Tumor Changes Everything speaks the language of grief seeks the presence of mercy and finds the surprise of God

Hockey Night in Canada Michael McKinley, 2012-10-30 Hockey Night in Canada has reached a great age and for television practically an immortal one because it made itself into something that Canada couldn't live without It is this surge of emotion that connected us all each week and which connects us through the years to now Hockey Night in Canada didn't just aim a camera at a game and observe what happened it actively gave the country a prism through which it could see itself and its evolving diversity We look where the eye of Hockey Night in Canada looks and it looks at us We remember what it remembers We feel what it feels That is the dynamic that has made the show much more than a long lived TV success it is a cultural juggernaut Ask fans where they saw their first hockey game and chances are it was on Hockey Night in Canada Ask the players male or female what first got them into the rink and the answer will be the same they wanted to be like the players on Hockey Night in Canada

Frozen in Time Adam Raider, 2014-12-01 In 1967 the National Hockey League decided to double its size from six teams to twelve This expansion was the first of its kind and Minnesota with its rich hockey history was a natural choice for a new franchise Thus the Minnesota North Stars were born Frozen in Time examines the organization's signature seasons from the late 1970s when the club was at its worst to its two surprising runs to the Stanley Cup Finals The book recalls the exploits of characters such as Wren Blair the firebrand ex scout who would become the team's first coach and general manager and owner Norm Green the man who moved the team to Texas in 1993 making him one of the most hated men in Minnesota Here too is the tragic story of Bill Masterton an original North Star whose death in 1968 as the result of an on ice injury remains the only one in the history of the league The team's engaging history is brought to life with vivid recollections from former players and legends including Cesare Maniago Tom Reid and Bobby Smith and from journalists broadcasters front office executives and faithful fans Also including season by season summaries player profiles and statistics Frozen in Time offers an authoritative and nostalgic look at Minnesota's still beloved North Stars and a bygone
