Winning with Your Body, Mind, and Soul Henry Arnold Davis,2024-10-31

Winning can be an elusive thing Anyone who has chased a dream can relate What does it mean to win If once a winner is one always a winner Does success in one area of life make one a winner Who decides whether someone has actually won At their core people are driven to overcome any challenge they face physical mental or spiritual They want to win with their bodies minds and souls separately and collectively Their desire is to be a winner in the game of life and beyond if there is such a thing Competitions with the body and the mind are battles Competition with the soul is war The War Ideally everyone would win the battles and the war However it s okay to lose every battle and win the war But it s not okay to win every battle and lose the war Victories with the body and the mind are paper victories Winning with the soul is the only victory that matters in The End While no one knows what will happen when they die an analysis of the world s top twenty two religions nonreligions proves that Christianity gives us the best chance at winning The War

How We Change (and 10 Reasons Why We Don't) Dr Ross Ellenhorn, 2020-05-19 A paradigm shifting instant classic in the making that challenges our assumptions about change by encouraging us to understand and embrace our resistance to it We all have something we want to change about ourselves But whether it's quitting smoking losing weight or breaking some common bad habit or negative behaviour pattern we feel a sense of failure when we don't succeed This often sets off a cascade of negative feelings and discouragement making it even harder to change The voice in our head tells us Why bother Successful change depends far more on understanding why we don't change psychotherapist and sociologist Ross Ellenhorn insists His decades long career as a pioneer in helping people overcome extreme psychiatric experiences and problematic substance use issues especially those whom the behavioural healthcare system has failed especially those whom the mental healthcare system has failed has lead him to develop an effective long term method to achieve transformation from the simplest shifts to the most profound In How We Change Ellenhorn looks to the evolutionary imperatives driving us We are wired to double down on the familiar because of what he calls the Fear of Hope the act of protecting ourselves from further disappointment He identifies the 10 Reasons Not to Change to help us see why we behave the way we do making it clear that there is nothing broken inside us it s how we re built By addressing this little known reality he gives us hope and helps us work toward the change we seek Ellenhorn speaks to the core of our insecurities and fears about ourselves with a humour and kindness By turning our judgements about self destructive behaviours into curious questions about them he teaches us to think about our actions to discover what we truly want even if we re going about getting it in the wrong way How We Change is a brilliant approach that will forever alter our perspective and help us achieve the transformation we truly seek

Literary Studies and Human Flourishing James F. English,Heather Love,2023 The Humanities and Human Flourishing series publishes edited volumes that explore the role of human flourishing in the central disciplines of the humanities and whether and how the humanities can increase human happiness The contributors to this volume of essays investigate the question what do literary scholars contribute to social scientific research on human happiness and flourishing Of all humanities disciplines none is more resistant to the program of positive psychology or the prevailing discourse of human flourishing than literary studies The approach taken in this volume of essays is neither to gloss over that antagonism nor to launch a series of blasts against positive psychology and the happiness industry Rather the contributors reflect on how their literary research work to which they are personally committed might become part of an interdisciplinary conversation about human flourishing The contributors areas of research are wide ranging covering literary aesthetics book history digital humanities and reader reception as well as the important inter disciplines of gender and sexuality studies disability studies and black studies fields in which issues of stigma and exclusion are paramount and which have critiqued the discourse of human flourishing for its failure to grapple with structural inequality and human difference Literary scholars are drawn more readily to the problematic than to the decidable but by dwelling on the trouble spots in a field of inquiry still largely confined to the sciences Literary Studies and Human Flourishing provides the groundwork for new and more productive forms of interdisciplinary collaboration and exchange
