

ENGLISH TEST

45 Minutes—75 Questions

DIRECTIONS: In the five passages that follow, certain words and phrases are underlined and numbered. In the right-hand column, you will find alternatives for the underlined part. In most cases, you are to choose the one that best expresses the idea, makes the statement appropriate for standard written English, or is worded most consistently with the style and tone of the passage as a whole. If you think the original version is best, choose "NO CHANGE." In some cases, you will find in the right-hand column a question about the underlined part. You are to choose the best answer to the question.

You will also find questions about a section of the passage, or about the passage as a whole. These questions do not refer to an underlined portion of the passage, but rather are identified by a number or numbers in a box.

For each question, choose the alternative you consider best and fill in the corresponding oval on your answer document. Read each passage through once before you begin to answer the questions that accompany it. For many of the questions, you must read several sentences beyond the question to determine the answer. Be sure that you have read far enough ahead each time you choose an alternative.

PASSAGE I

Mystery Paper Sculptor

Between March and November of 2011, an anonymous donor left intricately crafted paper sculptures at various cultural institutions in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Delighted, each sculpture was left secretly and was later discovered by staff. The delicate sculptures—streetscapes, plants, and animals—were carved exclusively from the pages and bindings of books. The tiny details in the pieces are awe-inspiring.

The first sculpture discovered—at the Scottish Poetry Library—was a tiny tree formed from a book of verse. Library staff dubbed it the "poetree." The tree sits atop a book. Beneath the tree are the halves of a golden paper egg, each half filled with words clipped from the poem "A Trace of Wings" by Edwin Morgan.

- 1. Which choice most effectively emphasizes the complexity of the paper sculptures?
A. NO CHANGE
B. impressively
C. terrifically
D. superbly
- 2. F. NO CHANGE
G. Each sculpture was left secretly and later discovered by delighted staff.
H. Left secretly and later discovered by staff, each sculpture was delighted.
J. Secretly delighted, each sculpture was discovered by staff.
- 3. A. NO CHANGE
B. specified
C. adorned
D. honored

the Netherlands European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training, 1994 Training in the motor vehicle repair and sales sector in the Netherlands was examined in a study that included the following approaches review of the sector s structure characteristics institutional and social context employment practices changing conditions and available education and training in depth case studies of four auto repair shops and dealerships two small one medium sized and one large firm and identification of economic employment and training trends It was discovered that in response to stagnation of the Dutch motor vehicle sales and repair industry in the 1990s both the Dutch government and the industry have increased their commitment to vocational training and inservice courses and have created a training infrastructure that compares favorably with those of other sectors in the Dutch economy All four businesses studied in depth were managed by individuals who were very involved in training had access to good facilities and opportunities for on the job teaching training and could avail themselves of good external provisions for inservice training Quality of service was an important element of training philosophy Training needs were not always analyzed in a very structured way and none of the businesses studied evaluated systematically the costs benefits of training Contains 20 references and 19 tables figures MN Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States.
