Rethinking Communication in Social Business Craig E. Mattson, 2018-08-31 Social entrepreneurship increasingly assumes a position of strength in the dynamic milieu of late modern democratic societies A plethora of companies have now arisen everything from mighty social enterprises like Warby Parker and TOMS to tiny outfits like Clean Slate and Bright Endeavors whose business focused approach to social problems is not merely additive but integral to their missions These companies respond not only to a felt proliferation of humanitarian and environmental predicaments but also to enormous shifts in in public feelings and technological sensibilities These predicaments and make social entrepreneurs urgently needed and remarkably complicated But if social entrepreneurs deal with that complexity with a business as usual approach to making the world better imitating for example corporate social responsibility initiatives by transnational companies they will lose their vital distinctiveness and efficacy Drawing on a transdisciplinary perspective close rhetorical analysis and qualitative interviews with social entrepreneurs this book argues that one good way to keep social business disruptive is to rethink how organizations model their communication Instead of assuming a conventional theory of communication neatly organized around the relations of senders and receivers social entrepreneurship should enact a performative model of communication in which messaging and action are affectively woven This book offers suggestions for making this performative model sustainably disruptive in relation to questions that pester social entrepreneurs how to tell the company story how to raise awareness how to address complex audiences and how to solve problems VRx Brennan Spiegel, 2020-10-06 A leading doctor unveils the groundbreaking potential of virtual medicine Brennan Spiegel has spent years studying the medical power of the mind and in VRx he reveals a revolutionary new kind of care virtual medicine It offers the possibility of treating illnesses without solely relying on intrusive surgeries or addictive opioids Virtual medicine works by convincing your body that it s somewhere or something it isn t It s affordable widely available and has already proved effective against everything from burn injuries to stroke to PTSD Spiegel shows how a simple VR headset lets a patient with schizophrenia confront the demon in his head how dementia patients regain function in a life size virtual town and how vivid simulations of patients experiences are making doctors more empathic VRx is a revelatory account of the connection between our bodies and ourselves In an age of overmedication and depersonalized care it offers no less than a new way to heal Brands on a Mission Myriam Sidibe, 2020-05-10 Winner of the Bronze 2021 AXIOM Business Book Award in the category of Philanthropy Nonprofit Sustainability Brands on a Mission explores the importance of creating a performance culture that is built on driving impact through purpose and the type of talent required to drive these transformational changes within companies from CEO to brand developers Using evidence from interviews and stories from over 100 CEOs thought leaders and brand managers the book presents an emergent model that organisations can follow to build purpose into their growth strategy and shows how to bridge the gap between Brand Say and Brand Do Readers will learn from the real experts in the field how Paul Polman former CEO of Unilever built purpose into the DNA of his company what keeps Alan Jope new CEO Unilever and Emmanuel Faber CEO Danone awake at night and how brand developers from Durex Dove Discovery and LIXIL have made choices and the reasons behind them In this book you will learn how a soap brand Lifebuoy taught one billion people about hygiene how a beer is tackling gender based violence and how a toothpaste is tackling school absenteeism amongst many others Renowned experts like Peter Piot Director London School of Health and Tropical Medicine Michael Porter Professor Harvard School of Business Jane Nelson Director Corporate Responsibility Initiative Harvard Kennedy School and Susie Orbach leading feminist and formerly professor London School of Economics also share examples data and their everyday experiences of helping corporates create a culture of purpose And leading NGOs and UN experts like Lawrence Haddad Executive Director GAIN and Natalia Kanem Executive Director of UNFPA will recount how the public and private sector have worked together to create an accelerated path to reaching the Sustainable Development Goals by 2030 The book provides a clear pathway of how to take brands through the journey of developing impactful social missions and driving business growth and is an essential guide for both managers and students alike The Best 391 Colleges, 2026 The
