Communications Specialist

DELOITTE

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Communications Specialist position in the Department of Computer Science at The University of Chicago. In addition to having several years of experience in customer service, product management & quality assurance, particularly in IT environments, I also have a knack for facilitating complex projects and can quickly learn the ins and outs of an organization. I look forward to presenting how my experience would be an excellent match for this position and your team.

Working with technology has brought me professional fulfillment because I enjoy learning new technologies and managing projects that have a significant impact on UX. One of my most rewarding roles has been as the QA Analyst and Product Support Team Lead at Packback, which is an education technology company that offers an AI-based online discussion platform. I was originally hired as a temporary support representative, but after 4 weeks of providing technical support to the organization, documenting and monitoring the timely resolution of defects, and testing the platform to validate user expectations, I was promoted to be the sole QA Analyst for the product/development team. Several months later, I was promoted to also be the Product Support Team Lead where, in addition to leading a support team to consistently exceed all KPI metrics, I improved internal processes and workflows that resulted in key optimizations in UX and team efficiency, among many other notable contributions.

I'm also very passionate about sharing what I know with other people, which naturally requires excellent communication skills. At Packback, I gave many product training's to staff, wrote dozens of articles for the help centre, and wrote macros for various support cases to make it easier for team members to respond to customers quickly and to ensure the Packback voice/brand was consistent across reps. I have an intensely curious and determined mindset, and my desire to help others and whatever team I'm supporting is what sustains my work ethic. I'm confident that I would be able to provide the same level of performance and work ethic to Deloitte.

I hope that you may determine my skills and experience to be a great fit for your team. If you would like to discuss my experience and qualifications in more detail, please feel free to reach out. Thank you so much for your consideration thus far, and I hope to hear from you soon!

Sincerely,
Miriam Kaufman
