

Oracle AIA

Application Integration Architecture

Company Overview

Compasso is a Brazilian I.T. professional services organization, founded in 1995, focused on the Oracle suite of products, specializing in custom software development and maintenance, integration, testing, and implementation. Our primary goal is to enable our customers to gain competitive advantages through reliable, high performance technology applications.

From our U.S. offices in Dallas, Texas and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, our Brazil offices in Porto Alegre, Rio de Janeiro, Fortaleza, and our Software Development Center in Passo Fundo, our consultants deliver services for large organizations in Latin America and North America. Our 150 professionals reside at client facilities as well as, our international offshore development center. When needed, we have the ability to double our current seating capacity. Our facilities are equipped with all necessary security and backup protocols.

Compasso has been fulfilling the information technology needs of well known domestic and international clients since 1995. Companies like Wal-Mart, John Deere, and Johnson & Johnson have entrusted I.T. project management and development efforts to the skilled team at Compasso.

Oracle Platinum Partner

Through the high level of expertise delivered by the company, Compasso has achieved Oracle's Platinum Partner recognition within the Oracle PartnerNetwork (OPN).

Off-Shoring for North American Customers

Our Software Implementation Services are based on Offshore global best practices and rely on the near shore working advantages: similar time zones, large daytime windows of common business hour availability, and GMT -5 zone (5-5 hours ahead of Eastern U.S.). In addition, Brazilian western culture and the common understanding of western business practices create a superior ability to translate business rules into applied technology for North American customers.

AIA Service Practice

Overview

Among the different application integration approaches and technologies currently available, Compasso understands Oracle AIA as the best approach for Oracle Applications customers. This approach uses best practices for achieving robust and scalable integration system architectures as well as performance and high productivity for project implementation efforts.

Oracle Application Integration Architecture (AIA) is built on Oracle Fusion Middleware's market leading SOA and BPM products. These products deliver a comprehensive SOA & BPM infrastructure for connecting heterogeneous applications and business partners, managing structured and unstructured business processes and advanced management via a unified framework for governance and monitoring.

With Oracle Application Integration Architecture and Oracle's SOA and BPM Products, organizations are able to leverage a complete set of tools, templates, content and methodologies to do more with their existing IT investments, provide business and IT agility, and lower the total cost of ownership.

Oracle AIA Implementation Expertise

Compasso has expertise in the AIA implementation, and all of the SOA Suite components that are part of the Oracle Middleware stack, having delivered several successful projects covering the integration of a large set of Oracle Applications:

- ✓ Oracle E-Business Suite R11 Integration
- ✓ Oracle E-Business Suite R12 Integration
- ✓ Oracle Siebel Integration
- ✓ Oracle Retail Integration
- ✓ PeopleSoft Integration
- ✓ Third Party Application Integration
- ✓ Legacy Systems Integration
- ✓ Mainframe Integration
