Ordinary Cities Between Modernity And Development Questioning Cities:

Ordinary Cities Jennifer Robinson, 2013-07-04 With the urbanization of the world's population proceeding apace and the equally rapid urbanization of poverty urban theory has an urgent challenge to meet if it is to remain relevant to the majority of cities and their populations many of which are outside the West This groundbreaking book establishes a new framework for urban development It makes the argument that all cities are best understood as ordinary and crosses the longstanding divide in urban scholarship and urban policy between Western and other cities especially those labelled Third World It considers the two framing axes of urban modernity and development and argues that if cities are to be imagined in equitable and creative ways urban theory must overcome these axes with their Western bias and that resources must become at least as cosmopolitan as cities themselves Tracking paths across previously separate literatures and debates this innovative book a postcolonial critique of urban studies traces the outlines of a cosmopolitan approach to cities drawing on evidence from Rio Johannesburg Lusaka and Kuala Lumpur Key urban scholars and debates from Simmel Benjamin and the Chicago School to Global and World Cities theories are explored together with anthropological and developmentalist accounts of poorer cities Offering an alternative approach Ordinary Cities skilfully brings together theories of urban development for students and researchers of urban studies geography and development

Ordinary Cities Jennifer Robinson, 2013-07-04 This groundbreaking book establishes a new framework for thinking about urban development and crosses the longstanding divide in urban scholarship and urban policy between Western and other cities

Die internationale Stadt Tanger Daniela Hettstedt, 2022-03-07 Die marokkanische Stadt Tanger liegt an der Straße von Gibraltar auf der Schwelle von Europa und Afrika Orient und Okzident Hier gründeten Diplomaten aus bis zu 13 verschiedenen Staaten ab Mitte des 19. Jahrhunderts internationale Organisationen die die Basis für eine von 1923 bis 1956 bestehende Sonderverwaltungszone bildeten Die Internationalisierung der Stadt wird von der Autorin nicht nur in die Kolonialgeschichte Marokkos eingeordnet sondern selbst als eine spezifische Form der kolonialen Herrschaft als geteilter Kolonialismus konzeptualisiert Diesen untersucht sie über einen Zeitraum von rund 100 Jahren und anhand stadtplanerischer Infrastrukturprojekte wie dem Bau von Kanalisation und Schlachthaus Auf diese Weise wird am Beispiel der Stadt Tanger sichtbar wie sich globale und lokale Entwicklungsprozesse gegenseitig bedingten und einen klar definierten Raum nachhaltig prägten Erstmals konnte die Autorin für diese Studie weit verstreute Akten aus den Archiven internationaler Organisationen zusammentragen und mit dem Ansatz der transnationalen Geschichte auswerten Daniela Hettstedt erhielt 2020 für ihre Studie den Dissertationspreis der Gesellschaft für Stadtgeschichte und Urbanisierungsforschung

African Cities and the Development Conundrum Carole Ammann, Till Förster, 2018-10-16 This 10th thematic volume of International Development Policy presents a collection of articles exploring some of the complex development challenges associated with Africa's recent but extremely rapid pace of urbanisation that challenges still predominant but misleading images of Africa as a rural continent Analysing urban settings through the diverse experiences and perspectives of inhabitants and stakeholders in cities across the continent the authors consider the evolution of international development policy responses amidst the unique historical social economic and political contexts of Africa's urban development Contributors include Carole Ammann Claudia Baez Camargo Claire B nit Gbaffou Karen B scher Aba Obrumah Crentsil Sascha Delz Ton Dietz Till F rster Lucy Koechlin Lalli Metsola Garth Myers George Owusu Edgar Pieterse Sebastian Prothmann Warren Smit and Florian Stoll Cities, Nationalism and Democratization Scott A. the global city toward economics this volume gathers a diverse group of contributors to focus on smaller and less economically dominant cities It highlights other important and relatively ignored themes such as cultural globalization alternative geographies of the global and the influence of deeper urban histories particularly those relating to colonialism in order to advance an alternative view of the global city In the Nature of Cities Nik Heynen, Maria Kaika, Erik Swyngedouw, 2006-03-23 The social and material production of urban nature has recently emerged as an important area in urban studies human environmental interactions and social studies This has been prompted by the recognition that the material conditions that comprise urban environments are not independent from social political and economic processes or from the cultural construction of what constitutes the urban or the natural Through both theoretical and empirical analysis this groundbreaking collection offers an integrated and relational approach to untangling the interconnected processes involved in forming urban landscapes The essays in this book attest that the re entry of the ecological agenda into urban theory is vital both in terms of understanding contemporary urbanization processes and of engaging in a meaningful environmental politics They debate the central themes of whose nature is or becomes urbanized and the uneven power relations through which this socio metabolic transformation takes place Including urban case studies international research and contributions from prominent urban scholars this volume will enable students scholars and researchers of geographical environmental and urban studies to better understand how interrelated everyday economic political and cultural processes form and transform urban environments Translating the City Hossam Aldy, Yves Pedrazzini, Stéphanie Vincent-Geslin, Yafiza Zorro, 2016-12-05 The city is a highly fragmented heterogeneous subject those who study analyze and question it make a use of a variety of disciplines and methods and have different areas of expertise How is a dialogue built between heterogeneous urban contexts and urban researchers architects developers anthropologists sociologists and political scientists What capacity do concepts and methods have to travel from one context to another How can they be transferred The strength of Urban Translations lies in its disciplinary and geographical comparison and dialogue on a global scale It openly targets an international audience bringing together leading researchers from a variety of disciplines urban planning sociology architecture and anthropology and presenting case studies from highly contrasting urban settings including Rio de Janeiro Mumbai Cape Town Dubai Montreal Geneva Lisbon Ljubljana and Berlin Over Researched Places Cat Button, Gerald Taylor Aiken, 2022-05-30 The book explores the implications that research density has on the people and places researched on the researchers on the data collected and knowledge produced and on the theories that are developed It examines the effects that research density has on the people and places researched on the researchers on the data collected and knowledge produced and on the theories that are developed By weaving together experiences from a variety of countries and across disciplinary boundaries and research methods the volume outlines the roots of over research where it comes from and what can be done about it The book will be useful for social science students and researchers working in ethnographic disciplines such as Human Geography Anthropology Urban Planning and Sociology and seeking to navigate the tricky absent present of already existing research on their fields of exploration Reason in the City of Difference Gary Bridge,2005 This book re establishes a notion of conscious agency in our understanding of urban life Using empirical examples and drawing on pragmatist ideas of experience and rationality this text offers a new alternative reading of the city

Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman,Richard R. Bohannon II,Kevin J. O'Brien,2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue

Spatialities of Urban Change Lochner Marais,Gustav Visser,2008-07-01 It is against a post colonial backdrop that the collection of essays assembled in this book aims to make a contribution to understanding the realities of urban centres which feature less frequently in the academic press The research reported in this collection echoes and highlights many of the themes found in both urban theory derived from the realities of many world cities and the challenges remarked upon in development theory seen in much of the work focused on South Africa s main metropolitan regions Cities in Globalization Peter Taylor,Ben Derudder,Pieter Saey,Frank Witlox,2006-11-20 Despite traditionally being a strong research topic in urban studies inter city relations had become grossly neglected until recently when it was placed back on the research agenda with the advent of studies of world global cities More recently the external relations of cities have taken their place alongside internal relations within cities to constitute the full nature of cities This collection of essays on how and why cities are connecting to each other in a globalizing world provides evidence for a new city centered geography that is emerging in the twenty first century Cities in Globalization covers four key themes beginning with the different ways of measuring a world city network ranging from analyses of corporate structures to airline passenger flows Second is the recent European advances in studying urban systems which are compared to the Anglo American city networks approach These chapters add conceptual vigour to traditional themes and provide findings on European cities in globalization Thirdly the political implications of these new geographies of flows are considered in a variety of contexts the localism of city planning specialist political world cities and the war on terror Finally there are a series of chapters that critically review the state of our knowledge on contemporary relations between cities in globalization Cities in Globalization provides an up to date assembly of leading American and European researchers reporting their ideas on the critical issue of how cities are faring in contemporary globalization and is highly illustrated throughout with over forty figures and tables Addressing the Climate Crisis Candice Howarth,Matthew Lane,Amanda Slevin,2021-10-04 This open access book brings together a collection of cutting edge insights into how action can and is already being taken against climate change at multiple levels of our societies amidst growing calls for transformative and inclusive climate action In an era of increasing recognition regarding climate and ecological breakdown this book offers hope inspiration and analyses for multi level climate action spanning varied communities places spaces agents and disciplines demonstrating how the energy and dynamism of local scales are a powerful resource in turning the tide Interconnected yet conceptually distinct the book s three sections span multiple levels of analysis interrogating diverse perspectives and practices inherent to the vivid tapestry of climate action emerging locally nationally and internationally Delivered in collaboration with the UK s Place Based Climate Action Network chapters are drawn from a wide range of authors with varying backgrounds spread across academia policy and practice European Planning History in the 20th Century Max Welch Guerra,Abdellah Abarkan,María A. Castrillo Romón,Martin Pekár,2022-08-11 The history of Europe in the 20th century is closely tied to the history of urban planning Social and economic progress but also the brute treatment of people and nature throughout Europe were possible due to the use of urban planning and the other levels of spatial planning Thereby planning has constituted itself in Europe as an international subject Since its emergence through intense exchange but also competition despite country differences planning has developed as a European field of practice and scientific discipline Planning is here much more than the addition of individual histories however historiography has treated this history very selective regarding geography and content This book searches for an understanding of the historiography of planning in a European dimension Scholars from Eastern and Western Southern and Northern Europe address the issues of the public led production of city and the social functions of urban planning in capitalist and state socialist countries The examined examples include Poland and USSR Czech Republic and Slovakia UK Netherlands Germany France Portugal and Spain Italy and Sweden The book will be of interest to students and scholars for Urbanism Urban Town Planning Spatial Planning Spatial Politics Urban Development Urban Policies Planning History and European History of the 20th Century The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Park, Tenement, Slaughterhouse Antonio Carbone,2022-04-13 Welche Wahrnehmungen und Vorstellungen von ihrer Stadt hatte die Oberschicht im späten 19. Jahrhundert Antonio Carbone zeigt dies exemplarisch am Beispiel von Buenos Aires wo sich an einem Wendepunkt der

Geschichte des modernen Argentinien und der globalen Stadtgeschichte nach dramatischen Cholera und Gelbfieberepidemien eine breite Diskussion um die Krise des Urbanen entzündete die zu einer partiellen Umgestaltung der Stadt führte In seiner Kultur Sozial Global und Umweltgeschichte nimmt er besonders drei urbane Brennpunkte in den Blick die industriellen Schächte die von Migrant_innen bewohnten Mietshäuser und einen Park im Stadtteil Palermo
