

Oregon Jurisprudence for Naturopathic Physicians, Latest Exam Updated For 2025 With 100% Solutions

What are reasons the board might deny a license application?

Commitment to a mental health institution

Drug addict or alcoholic

Engaging in flirting / sexual behavior with a patient (including when a patient initiates)

Being sexually demeaning to a patient or violating their privacy

Starting a relationship with a patient less than 6 months after you stop working with them (unless you were already in a relationship beforehand)

PPI breaches

Claiming to be superior to other ND's

Guaranteeing a cure or specific result

Stating that you know/use some kind of secret therapy or medicine

Prescribing off the formulary

Failure to refer

False advertising

What are the main things that can get you in trouble with the board?

- You didn't actually pass your exams
- You didn't do the application for your license correctly
- You're offering medical care for which you need a special certification that you don't have
- You're engaging in unethical behavior
- You're endangering your patients' health or safety
- You're negligent
- You're prescribing drugs outside your scope
- You got convicted of a crime related to your practice
- You're doing some kind of illegal advertising (?)
- You quit your practice and didn't tell folks or refer them out
- You kept a patient you clearly should have referred out

Generally, you get a slap on the wrist for which kinds of screw-ups?
