South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training,2016 The Rise of the Radical Right in the Global South

Rosana Pinheiro-Machado,Tatiana Vargas-Maia,2023-05-31 The Rise of the Radical Right in the Global South is the first academic study adopting an interdisciplinary and international perspective to offer a comprehensive and groundbreaking framework for understanding the emergence and consolidation of different radical right movements in Global South countries in the twenty first century From deforestation and the anti vaccine movement in Bolsonaro s Brazil to the massacre of religious minorities in Modi s India the rise of the radical right in the Global South is in the news every day Not long ago some of these countries were globally celebrated as emerging economies that consolidated vibrant democracies Nonetheless they never overcame structural problems including economic inequality social violence cultural conservatism and political authoritarianism Featuring case studies from Brazil India the Philippines and South Africa and more generally from Africa and Latin America this book analyses future scenarios and current alternatives to this political movement to the radical right It proposes a shift of focus in examining such a trend adopting a view from the Global South conventional theoretical tools developed around the experience in Global North countries are not enough The authors show that the radical right in the Global South should be analysed through specific lenses considering national historical patterns of political and economic development and instability They also warn that researching these countries may differ from contexts where democratic institutions are more reliable This does not mean abandoning a transnational understanding of the radical right rather it calls for the opposite the chapters examine how the radical right is invented adapted modified and resisted in specific regions of the globe This volume will be of interest to all those researching the radical right and the politics of development and the Global South

Transforming Universities in South Africa ,2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage The Law of South Africa ,1976 Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala,Chaunda Scott,2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT s innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa Juta's Statutes of South Africa South Africa,2004 Higher Education ,2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala,Salochana Lorraine Hassan,Rajani Naidoo,2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte,2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country Shaping the World of Change ,2024-06-03 This book sets out the theme of a world that is changing rapidly and higher education being an important agent in shaping that change through knowledge generation transfer and innovation The chapters in this book focus on this shaping role of higher education along a number of key areas governance sustainability teaching and learning student agency quality and internationalization From these different topics this volume presents ways in which higher education helps dealing with and shaping the educational and societal changes that we are facing in the aftermath of the pandemic and challenges that we are expecting in the near future Contributors are Victor M H Borden Bruno Broucker Edel Cassar B rbara Coelho Gabriel Cindy Cogswell Julia Draghi Brigitte Ecker P nar Eldemir Klaus Feldmann Cl udia Figueiredo Anne Gannon Jussi Kivist Manja Klemen i Theodor Leiber Nandarani Maistry Sara Moreno Pires Takalani Muloiwa Klenam Darlington Mutakwa Erna Nairz Wirth Ruaidhri Neavyn Jessica Nooij Mark O Hara Beate Pawle Alexandra Polido Maria P schl Silke Preymann Verena R gent Lotte Scheeren Kateryna Suprun Robertt Valente Floris J N van Berckel Smit Annemieke van der Horst and Sabine Weiss Narrative Psychology and Vygotsky in Dialogue Jill Bradbury,2019-09-06 This book draws together two domains of psychological theory Vygotsky s cultural historical theory of cognition and narrative theories of identity to offer a way of rethinking the human subject as embodied relational and temporal A dialogue between these two ostensibly disparate and contested theoretical trajectories provides a new vantage point from which to explore questions of personal and political change In a world of deepening inequalities and increasing economic precarity the demand for free decolonised quality education as articulated by the South African Student Movement and in many other contexts around the world is disrupting established institutional practices and reinvigorating possibilities for change This context provokes new lines of hopeful thought and critical reflection on discontinuities across historical time theories of social and psychological developmental processes and the practices of intergenerational life particularly in the domain of education for the making of emancipatory futures This is essential reading for academics and students interested in Vygotskian and narrative theory and critical psychology as well as those interested in the politics and praxis of higher education National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa. National Youth Development Agency,2016

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube,2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development
