The musical score is for a string quartet in B-flat major, 3/4 time, with a tempo of 120 beats per minute. It consists of three systems of four staves each, for Violin I, Violin II, Viola, and Violoncello. The first system (measures 1-7) features a melody in Violin I starting on G4, moving up stepwise to D5, then down. Violin II and Viola provide harmonic support with sustained notes and moving lines. The Violoncello plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. Dynamics range from mezzo-forte (mf) to mezzo-piano (mp). The second system (measures 8-14) continues the Violin I melody, which reaches a peak and then descends. The other parts continue their harmonic and accompanimental roles. Dynamics include mf and piano (p). The third system (measures 15-16) concludes the piece with a final cadence. The tempo marking 'rit.' (ritardando) is indicated at the end of the first system.

Notes From The Heart Of A Servant:

The Pastor's Note John L. Spurgeon, 2017-03-06 Throughout the gospel we find how Christ used parables to describe our personal relationship with God He took the tangible things of life as example to illustrate a spiritual life in Christ The devotional before you has one hundred devotions many based on parables of my life and stories I recall Why one hundred One hundred represents fullness and a completion as well as principle of return My first hope is that your reading this will not only help you to recognize that everything is spiritual but also give you an opportunity to know and experience more of Gods presence Second my hope is that completing this devotion wont mark an end or accomplishment but that you will be spiritually primed to pursue greater depths in an intimate relationship with our Savior And last with the principle of return I pray that you will continue to grow and be further profitable to Gods kingdom and purpose taking what God gives in abundance and pouring it over into the lives of others
