Nouveaux Dans L'histoire Nature:

La genèse des espèces : études philosophiques et religieuses sur l'histoire naturelle et les naturalistes contemporains Hyacinthe de Valroger, 1873 Beautés du spectacle de la nature ou entretiens sur l'histoire naturelle des animaux et des plantes L.-F. Jéhan, Pluche, 1874 Le livre de la nature, ou L'histoire naturelle, la physique et la chimie, présentées à l'esprit et au cœur, 1839 Catalogue of Scientific Papers (1800-1900): First series 1800-1863 Royal Society (Great Britain), 1867 L'Histoire naturelle au XVI^e siècle Pierre Belon du Mans, 2011-01-01 Philippe Glardon relève un événement particulier et largement méconnu de l'histoire du regard qu'a posé l'homme sur la nature la parution en l'espace de trois décennies entre 1530 et 1560 de dizaines d'ouvrages d'histoire naturelle inédits alliant de riches descriptions d'espèces végétales et animales des centaines de gravures originales Sur la base de ce constat il analyse le contexte de laboration de ces ouvrages rédigés le plus souvent en latin et de leurs traductions Leur dette envers les textes antiques est d'ailleurs partie de l'héritage de la culture médiévale La problématique du lexique et de la syntaxe des langues antiques comme vernaculaires est étudiée ainsi que considérés les destinataires respectifs des diverses versions L'examen méthodique de la nature et diversité des poissons de Pierre Belon retranscrite en annexe et de sa version latine sert de fil conducteur l'analyse et permet à l'auteur tirer un bilan novateur sur les véritables objectifs de l'histoire naturelle au XVI^e siècle laquelle reflète de manière complexe les interrogations humanistes sur la place de l'homme au sein de la création en un moment d'effervescence dans l'histoire religieuse et intellectuelle de l'Europe Catalogue of Scientific Papers (1800-1900): ser. 1, 1800-1863 Royal Society (Great Britain), 1872 L'Accélération de l'histoire Christophe Bouton, 2022-05-20T00:00:00+02:00 Comme une locomotive lancée toute allure qui aurait perdu son conducteur l'histoire des sociétés occidentales se caractériserait partir du milieu du XVIII^e siècle par une accélération exponentielle qui serait devenue hors de contrôle On a une vision de la modernité dont Hartmut Rosa est le représentant le plus connu et qui est aujourd'hui largement partagée Durant ces dernières décennies les effets destructeurs de l'activité humaine sur la planète ont augmenté une vitesse spectaculaire Mais une sorte d'inversion apparaît la Nature vue jadis comme lieu de la répartition se trouve historicisée et même précipitée vers une fin tandis que l'Histoire lieu même du changement semble étrangement stagnante Associant étroitement histoire des concepts et réflexion sur la modernité Christophe Bouton invite une évaluation critique de ce récit de l'accélération de l'histoire Qui sont ses défenseurs Quelles sont les significations qu'elle revêt dans ses divers usages théoriques pratiques et politiques Vivons nous vraiment libre de l'accélération généralisée Ne faut-il pas plutôt varier les perspectives en tant qu'attentifs d'autres expériences du temps historique comme le souci du passé ou l'esprit de l'utopie qui résistent cette tendance de fond Christophe Bouton est professeur de philosophie à l'université Bordeaux Montaigne Spécialiste de Hegel il a largi ses recherches aux théories de l'histoire Il est notamment l'auteur du Temps de l'urgence Le Bord de l'eau 2013 et de Faire l'histoire De la Révolution française au Printemps arabe Cerf 2013 FAIRE L'HISTOIRE BOUTON

rely on both words and pictures to convey meaning The twelve contributors to this collection go beyond traditional lines of inquiry into word and image interaction to deconstruct visual dynamics and politics to show how images were shaped manipulated displayed and distributed to represent the material world to propagate official and commercial messages to support religious practice and ideology or to embody relations of power These chapters are anchored in various theoretical and disciplinary points of departure such as the history of collections and collecting literary theory and criticism the histories of science art history and visual culture word and image studies as well as print culture and book illustration Authors draw upon a wide range of visual material hitherto insufficiently explored and placed in context in some cases hidden in museums and archives or previously assessed only from a disciplinary standpoint that favored either the image or the text but not both in relation to each other They include manuscript illuminations representing compilers and collections frontispieces and other accompanying plates published in catalogues and museographies astronomical diagrams mixed pictographic alphabetic accounting documents Spanish baroque paintings illustrative frontispieces or series inspired by or designed for single novels or anthologies anatomical drawings featured in encyclopedic publications visual patterns of volcanic formations engravings representing the New World that accompany non fictional travelogues commonplace books that interlace text and images and graphic satire Geographically the collection covers imperial centers Great Britain France the Netherlands and Spain as well as their colonial periphery New France Mexico Central America South America in particular Brazil parts of Africa and the island of Ceylon Emblematic and thought provoking these images are only fragments of the multifaceted and comprehensive visual mosaic created during the early modern period but their consideration has far reaching implications
