Now & Zen Louise Fairclough, 2015-08-07 A collection of Spiritual Haiku and poetry A Student's Guide to A2 Religious Studies for the OCR Specification Michael Wilcockson, 2004-09 International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Favor of Crows Gerald Vizenor, 2015-04-14 A collection of original haiku from a preeminent Native American poet and novelist Favor of Crows is a collection of new and previously published original haiku poems over the past forty years Gerald Vizenor has earned a wide and devoted audience for his poetry In the introductory essay the author compares the imagistic poise of haiku with the early dream songs of the Anishinaabe or Chippewa Vizenor concentrates on these two artistic traditions and by intuition he creates a union of vision perception and natural motion in concise poems he creates a sense of presence and at the same time a naturalistic trace of impermanence The haiku scenes in Favor of Crows are presented in chapters of the four seasons the natural metaphors of human experience in the tradition of haiku in Japan Vizenor honors the traditional practice and clever tease of haiku and conveys his appreciation of Matsuo Basho and Yosa Buson in these two haiku scenes calm in the storm master basho soaks his feet water striders and cold rain field mice rattle the dishes buson's koto Vizenor is inspired by the sway of concise poetic images natural motion and by the transient nature of the seasons in native dream songs and haiku The heart of haiku is a tease of nature a concise intuitive and an original moment of perception he declares in the introduction to Favor of Crows Haiku is visionary a timely meditation and an ironic manner of creation That sense of natural motion in a haiku scene is a wonder the catch of impermanence in the seasons Check for the online reader's companion at favorofcrows.wesleyan.edu Back on the Fire Gary Snyder, 2009-03-01 This collection of essays by Gary Snyder now in paperback blazes with insight In his most autobiographical writing to date Snyder employs fire as a metaphor for the crucial moment when deeply held viewpoints yield to new experiences and our spirits and minds broaden and mature Snyder here writes and riffs on a wide range of topics from our sense of place and a need to review forestry practices to the writing life and Eastern thought Surveying the current wisdom that fires are in some cases necessary for ecosystems of the wild he contemplates the evolution of his view on the practice while exploring its larger repercussions on our perceptions of nature and the great landscapes of the West These pieces include recollections of his boyhood his involvement with the literary community of the Bay Area his travels to Japan as well as his thoughts on American culture today All maintain Snyder s reputation as an intellect to be reckoned with while often revealing him at his most emotionally vulnerable The final impression is holistic We perceive not a collection of essays but a cohesive presentation of Snyder s life and work expressed in his characteristically straightforward prose Rhetoric and Kairos Phillip Sipiora, James S. Baumlin, 2012-02-01 This collection offers the first comprehensive discussion of the history theory and pedagogical applications of kairos a seminal and recently revised concept of classical rhetoric Augusto Rostagni James L Kinneavy Richard Leo Enos John Poulakos and John E Smith are among the international list of scholars who explore the Homeric and literary origins of kairos the technologies of time keeping in antiquity the role of right timing in Hippocratic medicine the improvisations of Gorgias as well as the uses of kairos in Isocrates Plato Aristotle Cicero and the New Testament Broad in its scope the book also examines the distinctive philosophies of time reflected in Renaissance Humanism Nineteenth Century American Transcendentalism Oriental art and ritual and the application of kairos to contemporary philosophy ethics literary criticism rhetorical theory and composition pedagogy Designing Sustainability Stuart Walker, 2014-05-09 What is the relationship between design sustainability inner values and spirituality How can we create designs that provide a convincing alternative to unsustainable interpretations of progress growth consumerism and commercialism Building on the arguments first advanced in his widely acclaimed books Sustainable by Design and The Spirit of Design Stuart Walker explains how we can achieve the systemic changes needed to address the challenges of sustainability Challenging common assumptions about the nature of our contemporary material culture and its relationship to human flourishing the author introduces approaches to design that draw inspiration from nature summon the human imagination and create outcomes which are environmentally responsible and socially just as well as meaningful and enriching at a personal level Offering a unique and original contribution to this vital debate Designing Sustainability is destined to become essential reading for students on courses in design and sustainability and for design practitioners looking for a deeper more meaningful basis for their work Conversations in the Spirit Lex Hixon, 2016-10-10 Armed with a generous heart subtle mind and a PhD in comparative religion from Columbia Lex Hixon as host for WBAI s In the Spirit was able to interview and skillfully probe the leading spiritual lights of the seventies and beyond Twenty five of those interviews finely edited appear here for the first time in print Includes short bios and photos Interviewees include Ram Dass Alan Watts Daniel Berrigan Swami Muktananda Kalu Rinpoche and Stephen Gaskin Lex Hixon was an accomplished spiritual practitioner
