Life On A Page Vicky Walker,2022-11-30 Step into the mind through others eyes and feel what they feel for a moment Step in the shoes of a lonely person isolated from everyone and read their thoughts Imagine if you could see through the eyes of another but the person was never able to tell you how they feel Embrace love happiness and sadness all at once and come out the end with a fresh perspective on life

Lito Wuz Here Josue Rios,2022-01-14 I decided to call the book Lito Wuz Here and use a picture of the neighborhood I grew up in Georgetown South because I want to be able to inspire young kids who grew up in that neighborhood or in a similar one Lito is my childhood nickname my siblings along with close family and friends still call me that When I was growing up in the South Georgetown South there were times when I felt trapped and thought to myself that I would never make anything of myself in life I look back now and realize the drugs and alcohol had a heavy influence on the mindset that I had at that age I am now thirty one years old and have been completely sober since Christmas of 2019 Many of my poems were written while hospitalized in many different psych wards and throughout many sleepless nights It makes me realize that there is a purpose even for our hardships in life My goal is to reach out to anyone that is willing to hear and make them realize there is always hope no matter where you come from That hope may just not come from a direction you initially thought I never thought nor had the goal of becoming a published author or poet I wrote my first poem in April 15 2020 and have been writing them ever since Though I do not follow a certain poetic format I believe I ve meshed my love for hip hop and my fondness for poetry and developed my own style which is the way I like to write My poetry book Lito Wuz Here was written with the hopes of inspiring a younger generation
