there are only two ways to go in Las Vegas you can hit the jackpot or you can get Stripped Sure to enthrall fans of Freeman's thrilling Thief River Falls, The Nightbird and The Voice Inside. This guy can tell a story. Michael Connelly: A strong narrative rife with sex and violence. Publishers Weekly: Elonda's seen most things working the streets. But it's a first when her client is shot dead in the act. Detective Jonathan Stride quickly establishes that the victim is M J Lane, son of a reclusive millionaire film producer. Any number of people might have wanted to kill M J. Another death is troubling the Vegas force: that of a little boy killed in a hit and run incident involving a stolen car. Then the body of a woman is found in a remote farmhouse. Could the murders be linked? It seems the killer wants to send a message about the brutal slaying decades earlier of a nightclub dancer. That case was wrapped up quickly. Too quickly. Someone certainly thinks so, and he's set on murderous revenge for the sins of the past. What readers are saying about Stripped: I couldn't put this down. Breath-taking, brilliant, talented. This story has everything: greed, power, corruption, murder, love, revenge, desire, family feuds, dating back forty years. There are a lot of very good thrillers out there, but Stripped is in a class above. Full of twists and turns, it's an exciting read, gripping from the very first page. Children's Books in Print, R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12. C'mon, Get Happy, David Fantle, Tom Johnson, 2023-10-10. In their third and final screen teaming, Judy Garland and Gene Kelly starred together in the MGM musical Summer Stock. Despite its riveting production history, charismatic lead actors, and classic musical moments, the movie has not received the same attention as other musicals from MGM's storied dream factory. In C'mon Get Happy: The Making of Summer Stock, authors David Fantle and Tom Johnson present a comprehensive study of this 1950 motion picture from start to finish and after its release. The production coincided at a critical point in the careers of Kelly and an emotionally spent Garland. Kelly, who starred in An American in Paris just one year later, was at the peak of his abilities. On the other hand, Summer Stock was Garland's final film at MGM, and she gamely completed it despite her own personal struggles. Summer Stock includes Kelly's favorite solo dance routine and Garland's signature number, Get Happy. The authors discuss in rich detail the contributions of the cast, which included Gloria DeHaven, Eddie Bracken, Phil Silvers, and Marjorie Main; the director, Charles Walters; the producer, Joe Pasternak; the script writers, George Wells and Sy Gomberg; the songwriters, which included Harry Warren and Mack Gordon; and top MGM executives, Louis B. Mayer and Dore Schary. The volume features extensive interviews conducted by the authors with Kelly, Walters, Warren, and others who shared their recollections of making the movie. Deeply researched, C'mon Get Happy reveals the studio system at work during Hollywood's Golden Era. Additionally, the authors have written a special section called Taking Stock that buttonholes numerous contemporary dancers, singers, choreographers, musicians, and even Garland impersonators for their take on Summer Stock, its stars, and any enduring legacy they think the film might have. Artists from Mikhail Baryshnikov, Ben Vereen, and Tommy Tune to Garland's and Kelly's daughters, Lorna Luft and Kerry Kelly Novick, respectively, offer their unique perspective on the film and its stars. The American News Trade Journal, 1924.
