The Door Lizzy Ford, 2016-02 There's only one rule Never lock the door Gianna believes manual labor to be penance for the mistake that changed her life Nothing can be worse than serving probation under the supervision of a bitter elderly woman known as the Caretaker running a bed and breakfast in the middle of the Arizona desert Then the strangers begin arriving They appear every night at sundown at the end of the driveway and vanish early in the morning armed men and women who don't quite look or act normal and never travel in vehicles despite the property being twenty miles from town Where they come from baffles Gianna as does the single rule the Caretaker gives her The front door must remain unlocked and the house accessible to the dangerous visitors no matter how unusual or frightening they are When one of them arrives wounded Gianna helps save him and unknowingly makes a powerful friend one from a very faraway place In fact from
