Tucker,2021-01-21 He was Red Skelton's favorite director and mentored Lucille Ball in the art of physical comedy In his 15 year Hollywood career S Sylvan Simon 1910 1951 directed and or produced more than 40 films with stars like Lana Turner Abbott and Costello and Wallace Beery Though he loved to make moviegoers laugh he demonstrated his versatility with murder mysteries war stories and musicals After a decade at MGM he moved to Columbia where he produced his own projects including the Western melodrama Lust for Gold and popular slapstick comedies like The Fuller Brush Girl. As head of production reporting to irascible Harry Cohn he produced the award winning Born Yesterday and was working on From Here to Eternity when his life ended tragically at the age of 41. This first ever account of Simon's life and career draws on interviews with family and colleagues, genealogical records, archival materials and his own annotated scripts to tell the story of a stage struck boy from Pittsburgh whose talent and tenacity made him a Hollywood success. The filmography provides production histories, critical commentary and excerpts from published reviews. An appendix covers books written or edited by Simon including his anthologized plays for amateur groups. Excited Delirium Aisha M. Beliso-De Jesús, 2024-06-24. In 1980 Charles Wetli, a Miami based medical examiner and self proclaimed cult expert of Afro Caribbean religions identified what he called excited delirium syndrome. Soon medical examiners began using the syndrome regularly to describe the deaths of Black men and women during interactions with police. Police and medical examiners claimed that Black people with so called excited delirium exhibited superhuman strength induced from narcotics abuse. It was fatal heart failure that killed them, examiners said, not forceful police restraints. In Excited Delirium Aisha M. Beliso De Jesús examines this fabricated medical diagnosis and its use to justify and erase police violence against Black and Brown communities. Exposing excited delirium syndrome's flawed diagnostic criteria, she outlines its inextricable ties to the criminalization of Afro Latin religions. Beliso De Jesús demonstrates that it is yet a further example of the systemic racism that pervades law enforcement in which the culpability for state violence is shifted from the state onto its victims. In so doing she furthers understanding of the complex layers of medicalized state sanctioned violence against people of color in the United States. The Father's Almanac S.
