CHAPTER 8—Solutions RECEIVABLES

Discussion Questions

DQ1.	Accrual accounting and valuation are violated by the direct charge-off method because uncollectible accounts expense is recorded in an accounting period different from the one in which the sale takes place and accounts receivable are not valued at net realizable value.
DQ2.	Both Allowance for Uncollectible Accounts and Accumulated Depreciation are contra-asset accounts, but their purposes are different. Allowance for Uncollectible Accounts serves to value accounts receivable at their net realizable value. On the other hand, Accumulated Depreciation shows how much of the cost of plant and equipment has been allocated as an expense to previous accounting periods. It does not serve to value plant assets at net realizable value.
DQ3.	An accrual of interest income is not required if the interest income earned as of the end of the period was received on the last day of the accounting period.
DQ4.	The primary advantage when a company finances its receivables is improved financial flexibility (cash flows).
DQ5.	The result of increasing credit terms from 15 to 30 days is a smaller receivable turnover and longer average days to collect. These changes occur because average accounts receivable increases relative to sales. The change will have an adverse effect on cash flows because, on average, the company will have to wait longer to receive cash from sales.
DQ6.	A decreasing receivables turnover and an increasing days' sales uncollected from

American Agriculturist, 1884 Electromagnetic Fields Thomas A. Moore, 1998 Six Ideas That Shaped Physics is consistent with the three basic principles of the IUPP The pace of the introductory course should be reduced so that a broader range of students can achieve an acceptable level of competence and satisfaction there should be more contemporary physics in the course and the course should use one or more story lines to help organize ideas and help motivate student interest The author adds three principles of his own to help round out this exceptional outlook The course should seek to embrace the best of what educational research has taught us about conceptual and structural problems with the standard course the course should stake out a middle ground between the standard introductory course and exciting but radical courses that require a substantial investment in infrastructure and or training and the course should be useful in fairly standard environments and should be easy for teachers to understand and adopt This carefully organized system of learning aims to assist students gain confidence as they proceed to more difficult concepts
