teaching practice in an affordable sustainable way      Science 5-11 Kendra McMahon, Alan Howe, Chris Collier, Sarah Earle, Dan Davies, Darren McKay, Kerry-Anne Barber, Lisa Howarth, 2024-11-13 This fully updated fourth edition of the bestselling textbook Science 5-11 provides a comprehensive introduction to current research and professional practice for teaching science in the primary school. Chapters are organised into five sections: first introducing theory and practice, then providing specific guidance on teaching topics in biology, chemistry and physics, and finally discussing supporting science across the whole school. Updates to the new edition include: Responding to recent changes in the Initial Teacher Education framework; discussion about cognitive science is integrated more fully throughout; Supporting all children's engagement in science by suggesting inclusive and creative ways of building and consolidating knowledge, including making connections between topics and with the wider world; New discussion on planning to support pupil progression in scientific knowledge throughout their time at primary school; building on Early Years and preparing for transition to secondary school; Presenting current research and outlining guidance on best practice. Science 5-11 provides a guide to the subject knowledge curriculum requirements and pedagogical techniques to successfully teach science within the primary school.      Exploring Children's Learning Christine Ritchie, 2016-12-08 Exploring Children's Learning 3-11 years is essential reading for those passionate about supporting children's learning environments from Early Years to Key Stage 2. By combining learning with important aspects of a broad curriculum content, it will inspire and enhance an interest in supporting children's learning. Individual chapters focus on key areas of the curriculum such as literacy and history, numeracy and science, as well as more general topics such as creativity, assessment and the emotional and behavioural aspects of learning. The book takes an objective view on control over curriculum and offers practical insights into how supportive learning opportunities can create enjoyable and satisfying lifelong learning habits, preparing children for the challenges they may face in their adult working life. Whether you dip into chapters or read through the book as a whole, you will develop your understanding of the complexity of learning and the lifelong effects implicit in this, not only from the individual basis that each child faces in terms of learning how to learn, but also concerning the differences in learning strategies required to successfully negotiate subject knowledge across a range of disciplines. This book is a must-read for students of Childhood and Education Studies programmes, those undertaking Initial Teacher Training, as well as general readers with an interest in supporting children's learning.      The School Librarian, 2002      Curriculum Focus - History KS1 John Davis, 2012-09-18 Part of a popular series that will inspire teachers, especially the non-specialists, to teach history and geography with confidence. Each book contains comprehensive background information, extensive photocopiable resources such as pictures, charts and diagrams, detailed lesson plans, differentiated activities at three ability levels, ideas for support and extension, suggestions for incorporating ICT. Famous Journeys chapters include Roald Amundsen, Amelia Earhart, Ellen MacArthur and Neil Armstrong.      Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1998      Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8-10 of the 1965-1984

master cumulation constitute a title index      Bloomsbury Curriculum Basics: Teaching Primary History Matthew Howorth, 2015-09-24 A brand new series for primary teachers that provides a full guide to teaching a primary curriculum area especially for non specialists The content is closely tied to the new curriculum with extracts from the curriculum itself and lesson plans and teaching ideas for every area The curriculum for History has drastically changed and this book will equip non specialists to confidently deliver engaging and well informed lessons This is a very practical and easy to apply programme for teaching History either in your own classroom or to implement across the school in the role of a co ordinator
