Their Lives, Their Stories* Richard Lister,2019-12-19 The only third person account describing the lives and work of NFL game officials There would be no NFL football without him He is an accountant educator lawyer sales executive policeman dentist business owner corporate executive or fireman He is an NFL game official His life is a little like Clark Kent's he lives a mainstream life Monday through Friday On Sunday he puts on a uniform lending impressive power He makes decisions affecting lives careers and fortunes On his best day he is anonymous and unappreciated on his worst he is despised He does a job from which fans coaches players and even he himself demand perfection He will never achieve it Though having an essential part in a popular game he prefers a low profile His anonymity evokes curiosity about who he really is The Third Team takes stories and reflections from interviews with 25 past and current National Football League officials including some among football's greatest to give the reader a look into a job that is far more exacting than even the most astute fan appreciates. The stories reveal the kind of person who reaches the pinnacle. Though competitive, wanting to be the best among peers, each man recognizes that his crew's performance has higher value than individual achievement. Becoming a team player will bond each crewmember into a powerful brotherhood. Their stories, ranging from humorous to poignant, give the reader insight into those working to keep NFL playing fields level for both teams. The perspectives are complemented by observations from former NFL coaches Tony Dungy, Steve Mariucci, Herman Edwards, and Jerry Glanville, along with former player and current television analyst Matt Millen. The Third Team will appeal to the fan who is interested in the game's inner workings and who will appreciate stories from behind the scenes and inside the country's most popular spectator sport.

Advances in Knowledge Discovery and Data Mining Qiang Yang, Zhi-Hua Zhou, Zhiguo Gong, Min-Ling Zhang, Sheng-Jun Huang, 2019-04-03. The three volume set LNAI 11439, 11440, and 11441 constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 23rd Pacific Asia Conference on Knowledge Discovery and Data Mining PAKDD 2019 held in Macau, China, in April 2019. The papers present new ideas, original research results, and practical development experiences from all KDD-related areas, including data mining, data warehousing, machine learning, artificial intelligence, databases, statistics, knowledge engineering, visualization, decision making systems, and the emerging applications. They are organized in the following topical sections: classification and supervised learning, text and opinion mining, spatio-temporal and stream data mining, factor and tensor analysis, healthcare, bioinformatics, and related topics, clustering and anomaly detection, deep learning models and applications, sequential pattern mining, weakly supervised learning, recommender system, social network and graph mining, data pre-processing and feature selection, representation learning and embedding mining, unstructured and semi-structured data, behavioral data mining, visual data mining, and knowledge graph and interpretable data mining.

Patriot Son: Gary Smith, 2011-10-18. Patriot Son is a chronological map of the author's life as first a daydreaming idealist, a soldier, a husband, and father, and ultimately a retired middle school teacher. As his family grows, the reader is taken from one assignment to another across the globe. Adventures of an army family add realism and sometimes humor to the account. Included in the story are letters to and from home during the Gulf War, outlining the frustrations on both the homefront and a potential war zone. Much of the story is taken from diaries kept by the author beginning in 1986. The final chapter of Patriot Son is dedicated to a fellow veteran, one who served in Vietnam but battled ghosts of that tragic time in American history. The author offered to take his friend to Washington, DC, to put those terrible memories to rest. His friend was not able to confront the demons of the past in that manner, so the author interviewed him for several days, producing a story dedicated to all Vietnam vets who have fought the same battle for so long. Patriot Son serves as a dedication to veterans of all foreign wars, particularly Vietnam. Please join all Americans in welcoming these brave men.
