

Necroscope: The Lost Years

Lumley's rich Necroscope saga returns to contemporary Canada for its most potent mix of suspense and social insight. Lumley's saga story elements take a dark, supernatural turn. In a literary landscape, not populated with sympathetic non-searching members of the United States, Lumley's Necroscope saga is a welcome reminder that sometimes a war is just a bloody, unending war.

—Publishers Weekly

Blood Brothers

"While some may'st say... Lumley never oversteps the delicate line between blood-chilling horror and cold greed. An accomplished storyteller, Lumley writes a page with the skill and skill of a surgeon." —The Florida Center

"The heart of the complex, powerful, unapologetic, passionate—in words for the most important aspect of any complex novel, Lumley's love of his job is a probably apparent."

—San Francisco Chronicle

The Last Apple

This complex, fast-paced, and challenging novel is a highly successful blend of genre and social appeal to fans of horror, fantasy, and suspense. Lumley's creation is so thoroughly real they make the Necroscope series feel like a novel, not like a shadow of the real thing. Lumley's series is a welcome addition to the horror and fantasy genres, and the series is a welcome addition to the horror and fantasy genres.

—NYT

"Unquestionably, I agree that the series' strength lies in its depth of worldbuilding and the psychology of its characters. The genre of fantasy is a welcome addition to the horror and fantasy genres, and the series is a welcome addition to the horror and fantasy genres."
