Philipp Reisner, 2012-07-18 This dissertation intends to situate Cotton Mather in the Early Enlightenment to add observations concerning his reception in America and to overcome the image of him as a transitional figure It proposes that especially the sections of his work which are only beginning to be explored show his particular theological position which consists in an enlightened redefinition of the roles of the Holy Spirit This has repercussions for the content of his faith and his practical and historical belief Approaching his works in a second step from the perspective of Early Modern Society it attempts to show the limits of concepts brought to bear on this society on him and on his works in particular such as the theories of the errand in the settlement of New England and its subsequent decline in its connection to psychohistory social history and the history of mentalities Given the overwhelming importance of the Salem witchcraft trials in the reception of Cotton Mather further observations on the changing role of the pastorate familial and societal education and the development of medical and natural sciences take their departure from their examination as an example of early modern phenomena of exclusion Critical examination of this and other historical and literary philosophical sociological and theological concepts which prevented Cotton Mather from being seen as an Enlightenment figure are the main subject of this dissertation Ecological Poetics;

or, Wallace Stevens's Birds Cary Wolfe, 2020-04-17 The poems of Wallace Stevens teem with birds grackles warblers doves swans nightingales owls peacocks and one famous blackbird who summons thirteen ways of looking What do Stevens's evocations of birds and his poems more generally tell us about the relationship between human and nonhuman In this book the noted theorist of posthumanism Cary Wolfe argues for a philosophical and theoretical reinvention of ecological poetics using Stevens as a test case Stevens Wolfe argues is an ecological poet in the sense that his places worlds and environments are co created by the life forms that inhabit them Wolfe argues for a nonrepresentational conception of ecopoetics showing how Stevens's poems reward study alongside theories of system environment and observation derived from a multitude of sources from Ralph Waldo Emerson and Niklas Luhmann to Jacques Derrida and Stuart Kauffman Ecological Poetics is an ambitious interdisciplinary undertaking involving literary criticism contemporary philosophy and theoretical biology

Between Faith and Belief Joeri Schrijvers, 2016-05-01 A contemporary philosophy of religion that offers a phenomenology of love What is to be done at the end of metaphysics Joeri Schrijvers's contemporary philosophy of religion takes up this question originally posed by Reiner Schürmann and central to continental philosophy The book navigates the work of thinkers who have addressed such metaphysical concerns including Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Jean Luc Nancy Jean Luc Marion Peter Sloterdijk Ludwig Binswanger Jacques Derrida and more recently John D Caputo Mary Jane Rubenstein and Martin Heidegger Notably Schrijvers engages both those who would deconstruct Christianity and those who remain within this tradition offering an option that is between between Christianity and atheism between progressive and conservative between faith and belief Ultimately Schrijvers confronts the end of metaphysics with a phenomenology of love and community arguing for the radical primacy of togetherness Joeri Schrijvers's book is a tour de force ranging over a wide spectrum of contemporary thinkers in order to negotiate the distance between religion and religionlessness God and Godlessness ontotheology and its overcoming The result is a nuanced and careful study that repays close study John D Caputo Syracuse University Among the many lusters of Joeri Schrijvers s Between Faith and Belief is a beautiful recovery of Ludwig Binswanger s phenomenology of love Discussion of postmetaphysical theology is arid without philosophically informed and creative talk of love and Binswanger s is a voice that has been missing from the conversation for far too long To put Binswanger into dialogue with Caputo and Nancy in particular is at once fascinating and nourishing Kevin Hart University of Virginia

Photographing Ambiguity Ted Hiebert, 2025-05-02 Photographing Ambiguity examines photography as a metaphor for technological culture arguing that a relational exploration of the medium can shed light on the dominant ideological tendencies of our time The book advocates for photographic practices that emphasize ambiguity suggesting that this approach fosters more conscientious ecological and creative relationships within the technological ecosystem of contemporary life Ted Hiebert critiques the notion that images should primarily serve to verify or document the external world He contends that these quantifiable perspectives while rooted in historical trends towards technology and data have become so pervasive that they represent a dominant ideological bias in the twenty first century In response to this data driven consciousness the book presents a series of exercises designed to cultivate an embodied experience with digital living not in opposition to the flood of images but within it Ultimately Photographing Ambiguity encourages readers to understand photographs not as benchmarks of reality but as ambiguous constructions of our present and future imaginaries

Lebanon / Liban Nadia Tuéni, 2006-04-25 This bilingual anthology edited by Christophe Ippolito contains Samuel Hazo s complete translation of Lebanon Twenty Poems for One Love and Paul B Kelley s selections from the never before translated Sentimental Archives of a War in Lebanon The Francophone poet Nadia Tueni has devoted readers in Lebanon and elsewhere in the Middle East and has quickly achieved poetic distinction in France The fluency of her poetic language and motifs reflecting Tueni s love of her people and country is illuminated in Ippolito s introduction She chose to create a new poetic language that captured the fragile essence of her troubled country and exposed the many crises of identities present in the war By identifying with her country she placed herself beyond all parties and created a sacred river that irrigates her poems Drawn from two collections that were published during the civil war in Lebanon in 1979 and 1982 these poems are haunted by the Lebanese war some transcend famous Lebanese locales as the symbolic incarnations of the land's eternal essence others illuminated at first by nostalgic memories take on a prophetic tone Tueni's work merges the poetic with the political landscape of her country She writes I belong to a country that commits suicide every day while it is being assassinated The languages of Rimbaud Lautreamont and surrealist poetry have had a decisive influence on Tueni's poetry But she also owes a great debt on the Arabic side to the avant garde poets for example the celebrated Adonis Like many Lebanese writers Tueni was active in political circles particularly after the war in 1967 Her poems tell of suffering memories of an abandoned garden slip away of her own life slipping away and in the end the reader is invited to reflect on the mimesis of identity identity of a country identity of a woman each echoing the other The Englishman's Greek
