Brüchige Texte, brüchige Identitäten Norbert Bachleitner, Ina Hein, Károly Kókai, Sandra Vlasta, 2017-12-11 Brüche prägen die Geschichte und Kultur des 20 und 21 Jahrhunderts dabei ist auch das konventionelle Erzählen ins Stocken gekommen Die Beiträge des Sammelbandes untersuchen literarische Texte von Autoren der Avantgarde und von Schriftstellerinnen mit Migrationshintergrund die diese Unterbrechungen von Kontinuität repräsentieren aber auch Brüche bewirken Die Avantgarde bricht stilistisch mit konventionellen narrativen Formen und Ausdrucksweisen der Wechsel von bedrucktem Papier zu Bildschirmen und digitaler Programmierung verändert das Schreiben und Lesen Exophone Schriftsteller mit Migrationshintergrund schreiben anders als Autorinnen die sich in ihrer Heimatkultur bewegen und ihre Erstsprache verwenden sie stellen damit eindeutige kulturelle Zuschreibungen in Frage Historical and cultural caesurae have shaped the 20th and 21st centuries whereas the conventional narrative is faltering The works collected in this anthology explore literary texts by avant garde authors and female writers with a migrant background which not only represent these interruptions in continuity but also cause caesurae themselves The avant garde stylistically breaks with conventional narrative forms and expressions The change from printed paper to screens and digital programming changes the way language is written and read Migrant exophone authors write differently to female authors who operate in their home culture and use their first language thereby defying clear cut cultural attributions

The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Dr Mark Silverberg, 2013-04-28 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets

Re-Writing Avantgarde: Fortschritt, Utopie, Kollektiv und Partizipation in der Performance-Kunst Pamela Geldmacher, 2015-11-15 Ist die historische Avantgarde noch zu retten Trotz der historischen Distanz und ihres vermeintlichen Endes nimmt Pamela Geldmacher die Spuren der Avantgarde erneut auf Fortschritt Utopie Kollektiv und Partizipation werden dabei als zentrale Parameter der klassischen Avantgarde herausgearbeitet und in ihrer Relevanz für zeitgenössische Performance Kollektive nachgewiesen So wird eine Reformulierung der Avantgarde entworfen die sich im Vollzug ästhetischer Prozessualität realisiert Local - Global Narratives Renate Reichtien, Karoline Von Oppen, 2007 Over the past decade and a half Germany has experienced a period of political and cultural turbulence which many have attributed to the combined challenges of unification and globalisation In response to growing exposure to global markets politics and migration debates about identity have increasingly been re-nationalised At the same time there has been a notable reappraisal in Germany and in German Studies of the regional and global as spaces for the construction of identity This volume sets out to explore these complex and at times contradictory trends focusing in particular on developments in Germany since the 1970s although chapters treating earlier periods are also included The volume brings together British Irish German Canadian and American scholars working in the field and resulted from a conference organised by Women in German Studies at the University of Bath The first section is primarily concerned with the specifically German concept of locality known as Heimat and its changing relationship with the global Included are explorations of the writings of Kafka Bachmann Johnson Sell Wolf Brinkmann and Jelinek amongst others as well as films by Schlöndorff and Steyerl The second section focuses on the impact of the global on institutions and rituals such as commemoration memorialisation and architecture which have traditionally been influential in shaping national self images Overall this volume concludes that the nature of the relationship to the local has fundamentally changed under the impact of globalisation Neo-avant-garde

David Hopkins, 2006 The neo avant garde of the 1950s 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment This collection of essays represents the first full scale attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art particularly painting and sculpture thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field but a number of the contributions also focus on poetry performance theatre film architecture and music Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo avant garde studies with thematic issues such as art s entanglement with gender mass culture and politics with key neo avant garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic this collection offers a multi dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere Taken together these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post World War II period Retroaktive

Aesthetics Martin Lang, 2024-01-25 In 2008 an Iraqi artist was waterboarded as performance art In 2010 artists upturned police cars in Russia But what exactly do we mean by militant art and aesthetics Bringing together the philosophy of art and politics Martin Lang provides a comprehensive examination of militant art activism its history its advocates and the aesthetic theory behind it Protest art is not a new concept and yet this book argues that after the terrorist attacks of 9 11 distinctly 21st century forms of art activism emerged On the one hand these became militant as artists retained belief in the possibility of radical political change through art On the other hand this belief developed in a hostile environment when anti terror legislations reclassified activists and artists as terrorists Through first hand interviews and experiences Militant Aesthetics sheds light on numerous international case studies of modern art activism and the different ways they can be classified as militant Many artists and collectives including Grupo Etc tera in Buenos Aires are prepared to break the law and risk arrest for their art Others like Thomas Bresolin's Militant Training Camp utilise military uniforms in violent performances that connect with public anger and artists such as Zthoven in the Czech Republic occupy hack antagonise and disrupt in increasingly militant ways Combining these examples with the pioneering thought of Badiou i ek Ranci re and Mouffe as well as up to date scholarship from Bishop L ger and others Lang investigates the instances attributes and rules of militant art in order to introduce a new overall theory of 21st century militant aesthetics A Companion to Experimental Cinema

Reverseau,David Ayers,Sascha Bru,Benedikt Hjartarson,2013-10-29 It has often been argued that the arrival of the early 20th century avant gardes and modernisms coincided with an in depth exploration of the materiality of art and writing The European historical avant gardes and modernisms excelled in their attempts to establish the specificity of media and art forms as well as in experimenting with the hybridity of the materials of their multiple disciplines This third volume of the series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies sheds light on the full range and import of this aspect in avant garde and modernist aesthetics across all art forms and throughout the 19th and 20th centuries The book's contributions written by experts from some 20 countries seek to answer the following questions What sort of objects and material works and media help us to properly grasp the avant garde and modernist aesthetics of matter How were affects emotions and sensory and bodily experiences transferred and transformed in the experiment with matter How were immaterial things such as concepts of time changed in this aesthetic moment What material meanings were disseminated in the cultural transfer and translation of objects How did subsequent avant gardes deal with the aesthetics of matter in their response to historical predecessors

Gaming Utopia Claudia Costa Pederson,2021-04-06 In Gaming Utopia Ludic Worlds in Art Design and Media Claudia Costa Pederson analyzes modernist avant garde and contemporary video games to challenge the idea that gaming is an exclusively white heterosexual male corporatized leisure activity and reenvisions it as a catalyst for social change By looking at over fifty projects that together span a century and the world Pederson explores the capacity for sociopolitical commentary in virtual and digital realms and highlights contributions to the history of gaming by women queer and transnational artists The result is a critical tool for understanding video games as imaginative forms of living that offer alternatives to our current reality With an interdisciplinary approach Gaming Utopia emphasizes how game design creation and play can become political forms of social protest and examines the ways that games as art open doors to a more just and peaceful world

AfroSurrealism Rochelle Spencer,2019-12-09 Examining the surrealist novels of several contemporary writers including Edwidge Danticat Tananarive Due Nalo Hopkinson Junot Diaz Helen Oyeyemi and Colson Whitehead AfroSurrealism the first book length exploration of AfroSurreal fiction argues that we have entered a new and exciting era of the black novel one that is more invested than ever before in the cross sections of science technology history folklore and myth Building on traditional surrealist scholarship and black studies criticism the author contends that as technology has become ubiquitous the ways in which writers write has changed writers are producing more surrealist texts to represent the psychological challenges that have arisen during an era of rapid social and technological transitions For black writers this has meant not only a return to Surrealism but also a complete restructuring in the way that both past and present are conceived as technology rather than being a means for demeaning and brutalizing a black labor force has become an empowering means of sharing information Presenting analyses of contemporary AfroSurreal fiction this volume examines the ways in which contemporary writers grapple with the psychology underlying this futuristic technology presenting a cautiously optimistic view of the future together with a hope for better understanding of the past As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural media and literary studies with interests in the contemporary novel Surrealism and black fiction

Heterotopia Tom Bowers, 2022-05-16 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Where is the space for contemporary environmentalism when both the utopian promises of a clean and pure earthly Eden and the dystopian prophecies of an environmental apocalypse have failed to be fully realized As this book argues rather than falling into one of these familiar environmental categories contemporary space is configured as heterotopia as in between spaces of dissonance where encounters with waste are a daily occurrence and where dirty matter refuses to submit to human demands and intentions Through an exploration of a series of spaces in which acts of leisure and recreation are configured alongside vibrant dirty matter Tom Bowers explores how contemporary heterotopia offers entanglements with a dirty other that promote novel opportunities for humans to ethically respond and be responsible to the continued presence of waste and to generate a sense of ecological care for a dirty world In doing so the book urges readers away from a utopian vision of what the environment should be and instead asks how we can ethically exist within and around the dirtied environment as it is This book will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies environmental rhetorics and environmental ethics
