Rome and the Eastern Churches Aidan Nichols, 2010-03-12 In the second edition of this major work Dominican theologian Aidan Nichols provides a systematic account of the origins, development and recent history, now updated, of the relations between Rome and all separated Eastern Christians. By the end of the twentieth century events in Eastern Europe, notably the conflict between the Orthodox and Uniate Churches in the Ukraine and Rumania, the tension between Rome and the Moscow patriarchate over the re-establishment of a Catholic hierarchy in the Russian Federation and the civil war in the then federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia brought attention to the fragile relations between Catholicism and Orthodoxy which once had been two parts of a single Communion. At the start of the twenty-first century in the pontificate of Benedict XVI a papal visit to Russia at the symbolic level a major step forward in the healing of memories appears at last a realistic hope. In addition the schisms separating Rome from the two lesser but no less interesting Christian families the Assyrian Nestorian and Oriental Orthodox Monophysite Churches are examined. The book also contains an account of the origins and present condition of the Eastern Catholic Churches, a deeper knowledge of which by their Western brethren was called for at the Second Vatican Council as well as by subsequent synods and popes. Providing both historical and theological explanations of these divisions this illuminating and thought-provoking book chronicles the recent steps taken to mend them in the Ecumenical Movement and offers a realistic assessment of the difficulties theological and political which any reunion would experience.

On the Unity of Christ Saint Cyril (Patriarch of Alexandria), 1995 This text is one of the most important and yet approachable works produced by Cyril. It was written after the Council of Ephesus 431 to explain his doctrine to an international audience. Cyril argues for the single divine subjectivity of Christ and describes how it encompasses a full and authentic humanity in Jesus, a human experience that is not overwhelmed by the divine presence but fostered and enhanced by it. Christology becomes then for St Cyril a paradigm for the transfigured and redeemed life of the Christian. There is an introduction to the historical and theological background of the time of the text and to St Cyril himself.

From Nicaea to Chalcedon Frances M. Young, 2013-01-26 Created as a companion guide to a Patristics textbook From Nicaea to Chalcedon surveys a variety of writings to have occurred during one of the most significant periods in the formation of the Church from 265-466. It does not aim to cover the subject as a textbook would but aims to delve deeper into some of the characters who were involved with the Church or the Councils during this period. Beginning with Eusebius of Caesarea and the first council of the Church at Nicaea and ending with Theodoret of Cyrrhus who is thought to have changed his view of Christology after the watershed Council of Chalcedon, this unique text surveys some of the most influential characters to have shaped Church history and the formation of doctrine. Surveying a mixture of significant literary figures, laymen, bishops and heretics, this book presents biographical literary critical and theological information about each. They are chosen either because they are important to the history of doctrine or because new material about them has thrown light upon their work or because they will broaden the reader's understanding of the culture and history of the period or of live issues in the church at the time. Structured in five parts each part deals with a period of time and a sequence of characters so the book is easily followed in chronological order. Added to this is the double bibliography which in this edition is fully updated. Bibliography A details those texts in English of the original texts of antiquity whilst Bibliography B provides details of publications in English French and German which have appeared since 1960/2004 on or about the characters discussed in the body of the text.
