NRCd Bulletin National Reprographic Centre for Documentation,1969 Heresy, Crusade and Inquisition in Medieval Quercy Claire Taylor,2011 Investigation of the development of the Cathar heresy in south west France looking at how and why its growth differed across the regions The medieval county of Quercy in Languedoc lay between the Dordogne and the Toulousain in south west France it played a significant role in the history of Catharism of the Albigensian crusade launched against the heresy in 1209 and of the subsequent inquisition Although Cathars had come to dominate religious life elsewhere in Languedoc during the course of the twelfth century the chronology of heresy was different in Quercy In the late twelfth century nearby abbeys were still the main focus of devotional activity inquisitors discoveries in the 1240s point to the previous twenty years as the period when Catharism and also the Waldensian heresy took a firm hold most dramatically in its far north This study deals with the cultural and political origins of the religious change Its careful analysis offers a significant re evaluation of the nature and social significance of religious dissidence and of its protection and persecution in both the history and historiography of Catharism Dr Claire Taylor is Associate Professor School of History University of Nottingham
