

A photograph of three people sitting at a dark, round table outdoors at night. On the left, a woman with blonde hair, wearing a black leather jacket over a teal top, is smiling and looking towards the center. In the middle, a person with short, bright orange hair, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, is looking down at a laptop. On the right, a man with dark hair, wearing a grey cardigan over an orange shirt, is smiling and looking towards the center. There are two laptops on the table, one in front of the woman and one in front of the man. A glass of water and a rolled-up document are also on the table. The background is a lush green wall with some purple flowers.

Exiting the Extraordinary Frances V. Moulder, 2015-11-11 This book is an exploratory study in sociological perspective of the process of returning to the ordinary world after extraordinary experiences Some people have transformative experiences in life that are so extraordinary that they cannot be at all adequately explained to those who have not had such experiences Experiences of this sort include being in military combat participating in great social movements revolutions or terrorist activities being incarcerated in concentration camps the Gulag and prisons surviving collective disasters such as floods or hurricanes serving in intelligence agencies and undercover roles being a member of unusual religious groups working as a journalist in war zones carrying out aid work in impoverished or war torn regions and enduring slavery The book discusses the commonalities among extraordinary experiences why people are so profoundly changed by them the typical challenges faced by returnees and some typical strategies returnees have followed in order to deal with these challenges A central theme of the book is that returnees are challenged not simply by experiencing extreme events but by a great cultural divide between the extraordinary and the ordinary worlds The struggles of returnees need to be seen as a social issue rather than simply the private troubles of individuals The book is based on personal accounts by returnees interviews and secondary sources and contains many lively examples both historical and contemporary of the struggles and triumphs of those who go through extraordinary experiences and return to life in the ordinary world

It goes beyond economic accounts of academic mobility based on the notions of brain drain, brain gain and brain circulation. Instead, it uses a cultural approach to explore the everyday experiences of the returning scholars concerning the issues of their sense of identity as well as their ways of connecting and bringing about changes in their work communities. It will appeal to anyone interested in 1 globalization and academic mobility 2 China's talent policies and strategies and 3 the internationalization of Chinese universities

Return of the Junta Oliver Slow, 2023-01-26 On the first day of February 2021 Myanmar's military grabbed power in a coup d'état ending a decade of reforms that were supposed to break the shackles of military rule in Myanmar. Protests across the country were met with a brutal crackdown that shocked the world but were a familiar response from an institution that has ruled the country with violence and terror for decades. Return of the Junta is a detailed account of the ways that Myanmar's military, the Tatmadaw, has maintained control over its people despite a decade of supposed reform. In this detailed account drawing on first-hand accounts from activists, journalists and politicians, Oliver Slow explores the measures the military has used to keep hold of power and the motivations of those now rising up against its rule. The book asks the question: what needs to be done to remove the military from power in Myanmar once and for all?

Return of the Golden Age Edward F. Malkowski, 2013-12-17 The truth behind ancient myths and the return of the celestial conditions for a Golden Age of peace and abundance. Reveals the events preserved in myth that launched humanity into 12,000 years of struggle, selfishness and false beliefs. Explores how we can initiate a new Golden Age through ancient Egyptian teachings on the creative power of our imaginations. Explains how our world system of economics, which benefits a few at the expense of the many, arose as a reaction to global catastrophe in prehistory. Since the beginning of recorded history, humanity has been in a continuous struggle over land and resources. It continues today despite the abundance we have created through scientific innovation and technology. Why such a struggle for resources exists has never been explained. Neither has the human drive to own, accumulate and hoard. Edward Malkowski reveals that the answer lies in recognizing the reality behind humanity's earliest myths. He shows that the opportunity is at hand to transcend these inherited selfish traits and return to a Golden Age of peace and abundance. Malkowski explores the hidden meaning behind stories such as the Epic of Gilgamesh, Plato's Atlantis and myths of a new sky and a new sun of great floods and the death of the gods and of the preceding Golden Age. He connects these myths to a real extinction event that occurred 12,000 years ago. He explains how the survivors, our ancestors, were catapulted from utopia into a world of scarcity, scarring the collective mind of humanity and initiating the struggle for resources in an attempt to regain our lost paradise. He shows how our world system of economics, focused on ownership and based on the false belief of separateness, benefitting a few at the expense of the many, arose as a reaction to this catastrophe Drawing on the pre catastrophe teachings preserved by the ancient Egyptians Malkowski reveals that we are returning to a celestial configuration parallel to that of the past Golden Age Through our collective DNA memory and the creative power of our imaginations we can end our 12 000 year quest to regain paradise lost and launch a new Golden Age of unity abundance and equality for all humanity

Amplifying Management Research for the Common Good Robert H. Tiell,S.
