Women in the Studio Paula Wolfe, 2019-06-25 The field of popular music production is overwhelmingly male dominated Here Paula Wolfe discusses gendered notions of creativity and examines the significant under representation of women in studio production Wolfe brings an invaluable perspective as both a working artist producer and as a scholar thereby offering a new body of research based on interviews and first hand observation Wolfe demonstrates that patriarchal frameworks continue to form the backbone of the music industry establishment but that women's work in the creation and control of sound presents a potent challenge to gender stereotyping marginalisation and containment of women's achievements that is still in evidence in music marketing practices and media representation in the digital era
