Awarded a B R A G Medallion for Historical Romance The Reformed Rogues series follows the lives of three fearsome

Scottish Highland warriors who form a bond stronger than any blood tie It is set in 11th Century medieval Scotland during the reign of The Red King RECOMMEND READING BOOKS IN ORDER Highland Chieftain Beiste MacGregor is a ruthlessly ambitious warrior with the viciousness of a beast He has little interest in women beyond the bedchamber On the order of the Red King he reluctantly travels with his men to the Lowlands to formalize a Betrothal to a woman from clan Dunbar He is unprepared for the troublesome but striking clan healer he meets on the way who not only infuriates him but stirs something deep within his soul Amelia Dunbar is a clan healer and the illegitimate daughter of the Earl of Dunbar When she is not serving as a companion to her half sister she is tirelessly attending to the sick in her clan Amelia has plans to find her mother's people in the Highlands and is about to embark on her journey when the arrival of fearsome warriors waylays her One warrior they call the Beast rouses her ire and sets her heart racing at the same time Content Warning Brawny alpha males and feisty heroines Not suitable for people under 18 It contains mature content some violence and mild steam If you like your medieval romance with a twist of suspense royal intrigue and humor then you'll enjoy this book Chapter 1 Healers Cottage Dunbar East Lothian Scotland 1033 Impending death has a smell Amelia knew this to be true as the metallic scent of blood overpowered the aromatic herbs that had since lost their potency She sat in stillness while the midwife bustled around the mud brick room her heavy steps leaving footprints on the dirt floor A cloying haze of smoke and steam from boiling water settled mid air as lingering sweat and strange odors combined to herald a body giving up its right to life Amelia had lived fifteen summers and knew that nothing not the yarrow nor the crushed bog myrtle could staunch the bleeding Her mother Iona would be dead within the hour She gazed upon the bed where her mother clung to the still born body of her baby son Another bastard for the Earl of Dunbar Amelia reached out and touched his tiny lifeless fingers it was then she wept for losing a brother she would never know and a parent she could not bear to let go If she had not sensed the shift before she felt it now The veil between the two worlds was lifting The midwife made the sign of the cross then left the cottage Amie her mother rasped Dinnae cry mo nighean Iona moved an errant curl away from Amelia's face A gesture that exhausted her Amelia shook her head in anguish No Ma please dinnae leave me I need you Tis my time to go Love What will I do without you Amelia sobbed Use your gift Your healing skills will see you through Iona's breathing became labored but she pushed on between breaths I've left you my notes Tell no one you can read you ken She coughed Amelia motioned as if to get water No Iona clutched Amelia's arm There is a letter in my notes and a box for you in the woods You will need the contents to find your kin Show it only to them What do you mean You are my only kin No lass Highland blood flows through your veins Iona was wheezing now and gasping for air Promise me you'll find them tis my gift to you Ma I dinnae understand Her mother winced Tell them Iona sent you Promise me I promise Ma Iona released her grip on Amelia's arm Her hand lay limp on the bed Moments later the door opened and Amelia's father Maldred Earl of Dunbar appeared His facial expression was haggard and etched in sorrow Maldred collapsed by the bedside Iona mo ghr idh I am sorry he said He then held the hand of his beloved leman as she took her last breath Amelia had never seen him cry before Their eyes met hers full of anguish and his filled with grief and regret I m sorry Lia I swear to you I will do my best for you I swear it he said With those parting words Maldred stood and left the cottage It would be several days before Amelia retrieved the box buried beneath the hallowed tree It was made of solid oak Within it lay a folded airisaidh and a crest badge with an insignia on it A battle axe encircled by branches with the Latin inscription Aut Vincere Aut Mori Either Conquer or Die With her heart lighter than it had been in days Amelia placed the contents back in the box and tucked it under her arm Somewhere out there in the Highlands she had a family and someday she would leave this cursed town and find them Dunbar Castle East Lothian 1040 If there was one thing Amelia Dunbar knew it was this she was never leaving this godforsaken place After her mother s death she found herself tied to the estate with never ending duties as a clan healer In addition Amelia still did not know who her kin were because all inquiries had come to a dead end And to make matters worse her father was at this very moment trying to marry her off to a stinking farmer Now by referring to him as such she did not mean to mock farmers because working with the land is a noble profession It was the fact said farmer literally stunk She could smell him from where she stood and that was a good ten feet away with the wind blowing in the opposite direction His name was Angus He was just shy of forty nine with a receding hairline and every third tooth was rotten or missing He also had seven children from two deceased wives who had no doubt expired from the stench of his breath Amelia knew she was no brilliant catch herself She was not bonnie or graceful or slim like other women her age but for the love of all things holy was it too much to ask that a prospective suitor bathed more than once a year So what think you Lia the Earl asked He s a fine catch with fertile land and lots of cattle I m sorry Da but no I dinnae think Angus and I will get along at all Amelia waved at Angus saying a quick sorry then walked away Exasperated the Earl followed behind her Come now Lia this is the fifth man you have turned down in two years I am trying to do my best for you I promised your m thair on her deathbed That was the part Amelia hated the most Her father s best was not good enough Her mother became a pariah because of his best His best caused his wife Ealdgyth to die of heartbreak because he could not keep their marriage vows His best meant Amelia had to take on more duties because he was rarely home At two and twenty years old Amelia was sick to death of her father s best Chapter 2 MacGregor Keep Glenorchy Perthshire Scotland 1040 Chieftain Beiste MacGregor stood on the rocky outcrop watching his men spar on the training grounds below He was six foot five of pure muscle with broad shoulders and a menacing scowl A hardened warrior his body bore the visible signs of battle including a grotesque scar etched across the left side of his face from temple to chin His bronzed skin was a vivid contrast against rolling green hills At nine and twenty Beiste had spent the better part of a decade fighting the wars of kings and now he just wanted peace On Beiste s right hand stood the equally enormous form of his Head Guardsman Brodie Fletcher and to his left was his Second in Command Dalziel Robertson Brodie was the charmer of their group with his handsome features and friendly disposition but rile his temper and he was as ferocious as a bear Dalziel was the quiet one a keen observer He was leaner than the other two but twice as deadly The three men had fostered together from boyhood and over the years had forged a kinship bond stronger than any blood tie Ever vigilant ever alert they waited in silence for Beiste to speak King Duncan mac Cr onain is dead Brodie wiped the smile from his face How Slain in battle by his cousin Macbeth mac Findla ch A family feud Dalziel asked Aye Thorfinn Sigurdsson of Orkney aided him I take it Macbeth is now king of Alba Dalziel asked Aye twas he who sent the King s missive requiring my immediate action What does he want with you Brodie asked I am to marry some wench from the lowlands What Brodie looked outraged Surely he cannot ask that of you Dalziel agreed Tis a low blow Everyone kens you still mourn your wife Beiste did not need reminding It had been two years but the memory of Caitrin s death haunted him still He can and he has Beiste said with anger But why Because she is Duncan s niece Why would he make you marry the niece of the king he just killed Dalziel asked I dinnae ken but if I refuse we forfeit our lands The men were silent processing their options And what of Elora Brodie asked What of her Does she ken you mean to take a wife What I do is none of her concern Are you sure about that Brodie looked doubtful Aye Beiste snapped Women have no say over what I do in or out of bed Brodie dropped the subject and glanced at Dalziel who said nothing They both knew Elora would not welcome the news Dalziel asked When must this be done Within the fortnight Then we best prepare our men Tis a sennight s ride to the lowlands Brodie said But first we let off some steam Beiste replied Training Grounds MacGregor Keep Beiste swung his broadsword with a feral war cry and ran straight towards his opponent He had already knocked out several warriors and was in the mood to pummel some more Brodie entered the ring and parried the blow with his square head axe Now they were locked in combat Beiste lifted his targe with his right arm and hit Brodie on the left side of his face Brodie stumbled backward but not before he swung his axe towards Beiste s head Beiste blocked the axe with his sword and stepped away The two men circled one another They had been sparring on and off for close to an hour neither one tiring nor admitting defeat Brodie swiped his axe again this time at Beiste s legs Beiste jumped over it as it sliced through the air He landed on his feet and in a surprise move sprinted headfirst and shoulder charged Brodie The force pushed Brodie backward so fast he lost his footing landing flat on his back and winded Before Brodie could roll away the tip of Beiste s sword was suspended and aimed two inches above his neck Do you yield Beiste asked Damn Brodie replied He hated losing Beiste threw his sword and targe on the ground and offered a hand to Brodie Truce Brodie agreed and just as Beiste stepped forward Brodie swiped his legs out from under him Both men now lay on their backs blinking up at the sky It was then Brodie chuckled and said Truce They lay on the ground for a moment trying to catch their breath when Dalziel appeared in their line of vision and threw a bucket of cold water over them Get up lassies we have packing to do Dalziel said then sauntered away That bastard really needs a good swiving Brodie grumbled as he and Beiste stood up shaking the water from their hair and wiping the dust from their trews When they turned to face their men there was a wall of women instead Beiste just scowled and walked away in search of water Brodie spread his arms wide to greet them his face split into a fierce grin Ladies I need to quench my insatiable thirst he shouted Brodie was inundated with a bevy of females offering him water cups He took one and gulped it down deliberately flexing his muscles in the process to show his side profile to advantage You are so braw and strong Brodie Fletcher sighed one young lass That I am minx braw and strong all over Brodie glanced down at his groin then back at her and winked She blushed and giggled A voluptuous brunette then approached Brodie She smiled when he turned towards her Holding her bucket of water she purred I offer you the essence of my pail and anything else you wish to partake of Brodie Fletcher Brodie's smile grew even wider He could not quite remember her name but he knew he would take her up on that offer later that night Beiste was glad to be away from Brodie's harem Having women fawn all over him was not something he encouraged He preferred his women wanton in bed and non-existent outside of it He could not understand Brodie's need to charm and seduce every woman within a ten mile radius Women were too much effort Morag the Cailleach It was a few hours later the Keep staff and tradespeople were preparing provisions for their chieftain's journey Dalziel who was to remain and rule in Beiste's absence was going over security changes and Beiste and his War Band of thirty retainers were readying their horses and making final preparations Beiste was grooming his destrier Lucifer when all chatter ceased as men stared at a point behind him Some made the sign of the cross others averted their eyes as the hobbled figure waited Beiste looked over his shoulder and stared at the wizened form of Morag Buchanan Her face marred with wrinkles her hair grey and the color of her eyes were white She wore her signature cloak It was grey like the mist The men called her Oracle Some called her the Cailleach or the hag for it was rumored she had the sight But Beiste had never paid mind to superstition It seems the witch wants a word with you Chief Kieran one of his warriors gestured towards Morag Aye t would seem so Beiste sighed He put down the grooming brush and turned to face her He really did not have time for any of her predictions but he would hear her out What can I do for you Morag he asked You go to collect your wife I hear Aye on the morrow but she is my betrothed not yet my wife Whether tomorrow or the next she is your wife already chosen Is there something you need Morag for I am hard pressed for time He looked impatient Och you young uns you never ken in all your rushing about that time has already set her trap for you Morag was speaking in riddles again and Beiste did not have the patience for it Well then Morag unless you have something important to discuss Patience Chieftain I only want to give you these for your men Beiste accepted the pouch and jar Morag offered but he furrowed his brow What are these Tis rose petals and honey Why the bloody hell would my men need roses and honey Your wife will ken when the time comes With that Morag hobbled away leaning on her staff Beiste just looked down at the items and muttered under his breath Bloody rose petals Och and Beiste What he growled Her eyes took on an eerie glow then she said Choose well Our future depends on it Elora It was the morning of their departure and the men were all gathered in the bailey Beiste had taken his leave with his mother Jonet and sister Sorcha He was just getting the horse tethered when again he sensed a movement behind him Did every woman in this blasted Keep feel the need to speak to him before he left Elora he grunted Her smile faltered at his curt tone Beiste hated this part of dealing with women who wanted more from him than he agreed to give Elora had warmed his bed months ago She was the only woman he had been with since his wife s passing He found her naked in his bed waiting for him one night and took the pleasure she offered making no promises in return Ever since then she had tried to stake some claim on him I heard you will be gone for a few days Elora said Aye Beiste replied and continued tightening the saddle Were you going to tell me She looked irate I dinnae ken why I have to tell you anything Elora But I need to ken your whereabouts if I am to help run this Keep And there it was Brodie and Dalziel had warned him Elora had misconstrued their relationship or lack of one Beiste stopped and turned to face her Elora flinched and took a step back He hated it when a woman cowered before him He had never not once raised his hand to a woman Elora whatever we had lasted only those two nights months ago But you ve not taken anyone else to your bed which means you must have developed powerful feelings for me She pouted Are you daft That means nothing We made no promises But I ve been keeping myself for you Really Beiste raised an eyebrow Because I heard you took up with Lachlan three weeks ago Elora s eyes grew wide How did you ken that Lachlan asked me what my intentions were towards you and I told him I had none But I ve changed my mind I dinnae want Lachlan I want you Beiste It has always been you She flung herself at him and wrapped her arms around his middle Saints preserve him Beiste had had enough He removed her arms from around his waist and gently but firmly set her away from him No he replied Then he focused back on Lucifer already clearing his mind of the woman behind him Chapter 3 Belhaven Village Dunbar Nine days later Come on Mary Stop dawdling We dinnae have time today Amelia said in exasperated tones as she hurried across the crowded streets of Belhaven One hand clutching a basket now overflowing with seasonal produce her other hand holding her sister s tunic so as not to lose her in the crowd It was Market Day in the village the busiest day of the month and there were vendors aplenty Amelia was there to purchase more seeds for her garden and pick up silks for their seanmhair Unfortunately Mary her half sister was dragging her feet I dinnae ken why you wouldna let me buy that necklace Mary pouted The vendor said twas a fair price for the quality and it made my blonde curls striking Amelia rolled her eyes as they weaved their way through brightly colored baskets of fresh fruit and vegetables Mary he would ve said the same thing to a muddy pig if he thought it had coin to spare Gentling her voice Amelia tried to placate her sister saying Once I get the provisions Seanmhair ordered we can get some berry tarts Mary s eyes brightened immediately Really I m famished The promise of sweet treats ahead motivated Mary to pick up her pace The sisters passed stalls selling a vast array of items from soaps and medicinal herbs and spices to fresh flowers and candy apples Pigs were roasting over open fires while merchants peddled their wares of silks and materials from exotic places Amelia was so glad she had dressed in an ankle length linen tunic With the warmer weather and crushing crowds it kept her cool She had just purchased their freshly baked berry tarts when Mary started waving at someone in the crowd Amelia I see some of my friends Can I go sit with them Who are they Mary Amelia asked Tis the Frasers Isobel and her brother Patrick They come every few weeks to trade Very well but please mind my basket and you can take my tart to share Tis not polite to eat on your own in front of others Mary s eyes lit up Thank you Amie She hugged her and disappeared into the crowd Amelia continued alone to secure the silks for her grandmother when a vendor stepped out in front of her He gave her a leery look while licking his lips Would you like to come into my tent lass I have some cool cider for a pretty one like you His plaid looked dirty his hair greasy and there was an unpleasant odor wafting off him that caused Amelia to almost gag Honestly Amelia thought how hard was it to bathe when the North Coast Sea was less than two hundred feet away No thank you I dinnae need cider Amelia politely refused He stepped closer to her crowding her in and she stepped around him He was about to lunge at her when the thundering sound of horses was heard through the village The hairs on the back of her neck stood on end Even the lecherous vendor turned to look behind him Amelia took a deep breath She could feel something coming its raw energy warning her as the earth beneath her feet rumbled She spun around The villagers began muttering and grabbing their children Some huddled behind their stalls all eyes on the strangers approaching They were fierce looking they wore armor and plaid Amelia heard a woman gasp Tis the MacGregors They looked as if they had come straight from battle Then the same woman pointed and cried Tis the Beast Amelia looked in that direction and saw him He was magnificent The sheer size of him made her shudder He emanated raw energy His bronzed skin and black piercing eyes missed nothing He wore an angry scowl made even more menacing by the vicious scar across his face Men of equal size surrounded him all wearing the MacGregor plaid Flanking to his right was an equally fearsome warrior wearing animal fur with a battle axe strapped to his back Amelia stood mesmerized at the sight It would seem the lecherous vendor had taken the opportunity of Amelia s distraction to lunge for her again She tried to keep clear of his grip and instead propelled too far forward the momentum pushing her directly onto the road and into the path of the riders She froze and knew they would trample her to death and oh the regret that she had not even left this miserable sodding town Amelia heard a shout ring out from the one they called the Beast he was riding straight for her This was it This was the end She closed her eyes until she felt a firm arm reach down and sweep her up like she weighed nothing She opened her eyes to find herself sitting atop a horse her bottom wedged between strong thighs The smell of leather and man rattled her senses as she drank in the heady sensation before he yelled Daft wench Are you trying to get yourself killed What Amelia whipped her head around to glare at him but stared at a bare chest instead The Beiste tightened his hold on her slowed his horse then set her down in the clearing She looked up to offer her thanks when he reprimanded her again Watch where you walk silly chit You could ve been hurt or maimed What were you thinking just standing in the middle of the road like a stunned cow Before Amelia could respond he continued with his tirade Next time do your wool gathering where it cannot get you bloody killed Outraged that she would receive such a set down by a stranger in a public place Amelia had had enough Not only did the big brute call her stupid he called her a cow A cow After two and twenty years of having the villagers snicker at her and vile stinking men grope her there was no way she was letting an ogre call her a cow With both hands firmly on her hips Amelia let fly How dare you You big ox You Her finger pointed at him should not ride into a village Her finger pointed at the village without a care in the world Both arms went up in the air gesturing the world You could have killed me Both hands went back to her hips And just because I have a big arse it does not make me a cow Amelia screeched She was out of breath her face was red after that display and standing on the roadside venting her spleen she had to admit she felt somewhat better In her mind Amelia believed she had kept a civil yet stern tongue but when she looked around and found the entire village silent and everyone staring at her with mouths ajar she realized she had in fact been screaming at high volume Had she taken the time to think about it she would have kept her mouth shut altogether The Beast stared at her for what seemed like an eternity he raised his hand to signal to his men to stop They were currently smirking trying to wipe the amusement from their faces Beiste dismounted his horse and scowled his face a mask of tightly controlled rage He walked towards the woman he now considered a howling wench and given his height and the length of his legs it took him two seconds to reach her Oh bollocks Amelia s throat suddenly felt parched she could feel all the villagers behind her step away She could already hear the bards singing about her death in a marketplace covered in candy apples berry tarts and horseshit For centuries she would be the cautionary tale for plump Gaelic women everywhere with acerbic tongues Bloody hell she muttered to herself She was on her own As the Beast approached her knees trembled She saw his broadsword sheathed in the scabbard at his side Was that blood still on his sword Was that the blood of another mouthy lass who dared to question him in the previous village The road spun She felt lightheaded but she would not yield Amelia raised her chin slightly Her mind sifting through escape plans all of them failing because she could not run without sustaining a serious chafing injury She was doomed Amelia looked up The Beast was standing directly in front of her staring down Lud he was huge She braced The next time a man saves your life a word of thanks would do not your damn screaming like a banshee for the world to hear He roared the last part of the line You His finger pointed at her are damned lucky my men and I His finger pointed at himself and his men dinnae believe in harming women if you He pointed at her again had challenged anyone else Both his arms gestured around the village who kens what your insolence could have cost you He pointed at her then brought his face closer Have a care for your safety lass dinnae court danger with your reckless behavior he seethed Amelia thought for someone who accused others of screaming he sure did a lot of bellowing himself The Beast looked at a point behind her and shouted Is this your woman If she is you need to keep a firm hold of her tongue A deep voice with a smooth brogue answered No she is not but I would still prefer no harm came to her Amelia whipped her head back to find Mary s friend Patrick Fraser a scant distance behind her standing legs apart one hand resting on the scabbard of his sword as if ready to protect her Bless ed man She spotted Mary and Isobel a safe distance away looking worried Amelia suddenly felt contrite and embarrassed Could this day get any worse I am sorry I thank you for saving me she responded feeling genuine remorse and relief that the Beast had not taken her head off with his broadsword The Beast continued to stare at her for a few moments then just grunted shook his head and walked away Could this day get any worse Beiste could not believe the wee termagant he had just encountered He was tired and hungry and that besom screamed at him like a wild stuck boar when he had just saved her life The daft woman needed to reign in that temper of hers before she met with violence It worried him that the bonnie lass was courting danger The woman had a death wish Beiste heard a chuckle from his left and gritted his teeth Brodie the ass found the whole incident amusing and had not stopped chortling about it since they left the village Beiste instantly regretted his decision to bring Brodie along The man was an idiot As they rode towards Dunbar Castle Beiste kept thinking on the termagant once more He noted she looked familiar a memory from his past those eyes of hers one brown and one green He had seen them before Beiste thought also of her kissable lips and luscious breasts and rounded hips He had become aroused watching her feisty display For a screaming banshee she had a body built to take an enormous man without fear of breaking her Beiste shook his head to stop the errant thoughts plaguing his mind It had been too long since he d had a woman He was now lusting after some screeching she cat But he would say this she smelled of lilacs and clean fresh woodlands If only she was not such a screamer An even darker thought crossed his mind What would she be like under him screaming his name in pleasure Damn it He needed to stop this train of thought Damn wench

The Gothic Romance Wave Lori A. Paige, 2018-10-09 The late 1960s and early 1970s saw the birth of modern feminism the sexual revolution and strong growth in the mass market publishing industry Women made up a large part of the book market and Gothic fiction became a higher popular staple Victoria Holt Mary Stewart and Phyllis Whitney emerged as prominent authors while the standardized paperback Gothic sold in the millions Pitched at middle class women of all ages Gothics paved the way for contemporary fiction categories such as urban fantasy paranormal romance and vampire erotica Though not as popular today as they once were Gothic paperbacks retain a cult following and the books themselves have become collectors items They were also the first popular novels to present strong heroines as agents of liberation and transformation This work offers the missing chapters of the Gothic story from the imaginative creations of Ann Radcliffe and the Bronte sisters to the bestseller 50 Shades of Grey

Reading the Romance Janice A. Radway, 2009-11-18 Originally published in 1984 Reading the Romance challenges popular and often demeaning myths about why romantic fiction one of publishing s most lucrative categories captivates millions of women readers Among those who have disparaged romance reading are feminists literary critics and theorists of mass culture They claim that romances enforce the woman reader s dependence on men and acceptance of the repressive ideology purveyed by popular culture Radway questions such claims arguing that critical attention must shift from the text itself taken in isolation to the complex social event of reading She examines that event from the complicated business of publishing and distribution to the individual reader's engagement with the text Radway's provocative approach combines reader response criticism with anthropology and feminist psychology Asking readers themselves to explore their reading motives habits and rewards she conducted interviews in a midwestern town with forty two romance readers whom she met through Dorothy Evans a chain bookstore employee who has earned a reputation as an expert on romantic fiction Evans defends her customers choice of entertainment reading romances she tells Radway is no more harmful than watching sports on television We read books so we won't cry is the poignant explanation one woman offers for her reading habit Indeed Radway found that while the women she studied devote themselves to nurturing their families these wives and mothers receive insufficient devotion or nurturance in return In romances the women find not only escape from the demanding and often tiresome routines of their lives but also a hero who supplies the tenderness and admiring attention that they have learned not to expect The heroines admired by Radway's group defy the expected stereotypes they are strong independent and intelligent That such characters often find themselves to be victims of male aggression and almost always resign themselves to accepting conventional roles in life has less to do Radway argues with the women readers fantasies and choices than with their need to deal with a fear of masculine dominance These romance readers resent not only the limited choices in their own lives but the patronizing attitude that men especially express toward their reading tastes In fact women read romances both to protest and to escape temporarily the narrowly defined role prescribed for them by a patriarchal culture Paradoxically the books that they read make conventional roles for women seem desirable It is this complex relationship between culture text and woman reader that Radway urges feminists to address Romance readers she argues should be encouraged to deliver their protests in the arena of actual social relations rather than to act them out in the solitude of the imagination In a new introduction Janice Radway places the book within the context of current scholarship and offers both an explanation and critique of the study's limitations
