To Whom It May Concern,

A cover letter allows you to professionally introduce yourself to a prospective employer. Your goal in writing your cover letter should be to encourage the employer to read your resume and consider you for a specific position.

Highlight your achievements, skills, experiences, and training that are relevant to the position you want to get. However, avoid simply repeating the information you included in your resume. Tailor your cover letter to each employer and job. Since you are applying for specific roles, give specific examples and events that demonstrate your ability to perform well if given the position.

Yes, you should maintain a professional air throughout the copy, however, an exceedingly formal tone may turn off those who read it. Remember to also show genuine enthusiasm for the job. You can think of it this way: it's not a suit-and-tie event, but a smart casual gathering. Steer away from highly personal information and questions about the position. This includes talking about salary expectations and company benefits. Instead, reserve such inquiries for the actual interview.

Make sure you proofread your cover letter before sending it. There are various online tools that can help you catch minor grammatical or typographical errors. Additionally, make sure your cover letter is easy to read. Use a simple font like the one used here. Avoid walls of text, too. Dividing your letter into paragraphs makes it easy on the eyes and organizes the information you provide.

Sincerely,

Claire Cooper

Write a Cover Letter That Takes Risks Rachel Hill, 2020-07-08 The biggest mistake people make when writing a cover letter is not taking a risk. Instead they choose to follow one of those boring ill thought out templates found online. It's the cookie cutter approach to the job application process. That exact opposite of what candidates should do. Getting a job you really want means getting out of your comfort zone. Learn how you should be using the cover letter to your advantage. Discover the most common mistakes applicants make and get a step by step guide of exactly what you should be writing. I'll teach you the method that has landed my clients an interview time and time again. It's a process I have perfected from over 20 years of experience helping others to find work they love, get promotions and increase their salaries. I'll show you how to write a cover letter that will put you ahead of other job applicants. By taking a risk that will capture the attention of your future employer. With this guide you'll Take a risk and stand out against other applicants. Discover the mindset of a recruiter. Learn an approach that's been proven successful time and time again. Never make a common mistake ever again. Take the leg work out of future job applications. I've established this crucial method from years of experience in the career coaching field helping hundreds of clients look for and secure the jobs they want. Now I've nailed the job search process. I want to make it accessible to as many people as possible. That's why I've created this guide to share what has taken me years to refine. I'll break down the cover letter writing process into six steps and teach you how to Step into the recruiter's shoes. Allow your value to shine through. Prove you've done your research. End with a punch. Get to grips with the why of the cover letter. What to do if you are asked to submit a video. Exactly what to write in each paragraph. Common mistakes and big no nos. The job application process isn't easy. It takes time, confidence and a lot of revisions. With a guide like this I can offer you the best tips and advice but the work is still up to you. That's why I've made it just 12.99. Ask yourself are you ready to commit to the process. To put in the time effort and confidence needed to take a risk and reach your goal. If your answer is yes roll your sleeves up. We've got some work to do. After learning Rachel's process for writing CVs and cover letters for applying projects I got a callback for a job where there was 500 applicants. Nikki Auckland
